Section 5 INFORMATION INVESTIGATION PETITION Any person having knowledge or information that a child is within the provisions of this act may and any peace officer having such knowledge or information shall report to the court such knowledge or information Upon receipt of such report the judge or a duly authorized probation officer or other agent of the court shall inquire into the case and determine whether the public interests or the interests of the child will be subserved by the court's acquiring jurisdiction in the case Whenever practicable such inquiry shall include a preliminary investigation of the home and environment conditions of the child his previous history and the facts and circumstances of the condition alleged and the results of the inquiry shall be reported in writing If the court through the judge or duly authorized probation officer or other agent shall determine that jurisdiction should be acquired it shall cause a petition to be made and filed by a person having such knowledge or information Provided That whenever a child is taken into custody a petition shall be filed forthwith unless the parent or guardian consents in writing to detention to such time as is necessary to make an investigation or unless a duly authorized officer or agent of the court consents to the child's release pending the disposition of the case And provided further That nothing in this act shall be construed to prevent any person having knowledge that a child is within the provisions of the act from making and presenting a petition to the court

The petition shall be verified under oath alleging the facts as briefly as may be which bring said child within the provisions of this act The petition shall also state (1) The name age and residence of the child (2) the names and residences of his parents (3) the name and residence of his legal guardian if the child is under guardianship and (4) the name and residence of the person or persons in whose custody or control the child is at the time of making the petition If any of the jurisdictional facts herein required are not known or cannot be ascertained by the petitioner the petition shall so state

Section 6 ISSUANCE OF SUMMONS NOTICE After a petition shall have been filed with the court and after the making of such further investigation as the court may direct unless the parties hereinafter named shall voluntarily appear or be in court the court shall issue summons reciting briefly the facts in the case and requiring the person or persons who have the custody or control of the child or in whose custody or control the child at the time is to personally appear and bring the child before the court at a time and place stated in the summons If the person so summoned shall be other than the parent or guardian of the child then the parent or guardian or both shall also be notified of the pendency of the case and of the time and place appointed by personal service at least twenty-four hours before the hearing except as hereinafter provided

Summons may be issued requiring the appearance of any other person whose presence in the discretion of the judge is necessary for the welfare of the child or for the proper hearing of the case Provided That if the whereabouts of any person whose presence in court may be desired shall be unknown the judge may determine what means shall be used to give such person notice to appear

Section 7 SERVICE OF SUMMONS TRAVELING EXPENSES Service of summons shall be made personally by the delivery of a true and attested copy thereof to the person summoned Provided That if the judge is satisfied that reasonable but unsuccessful efforts have been made to serve the summons or the notice required by the provisions of the preceding section personally upon any of the parties named therein or if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the judge that it is impractiable to serve such summons or notice personally upon any of them and the child is actually present in court the judge may make an order providing for the service of the summons or notice by registered mail addressed to their last known addresses or by publication thereof or both as may be ordered by the court It shall be sufficient to confer jurisdiction if service is effected at any time before the time fixed in the summons for the return thereof but the judge if requested by a parent or in case there is no parent by the person having the guardianship or custody of the child shall not proceed with the hearing earlier than three days after the service Failure to serve a summons upon any person shall not impair the jurisdiction of the court to proceed in cases of delinquent children if for good cause shown the judge shall have made an order dispensing with such service

Service of a summons process or notice required by this act may be made by any suitable person under the direction of the court The judge may in his dicretion authorize the payment of necessary travelling expenses incurred by any person summoned or otherwise required to appear at the hearing of any case coming within the provisions of this act Such expenses when approved by the judge shall be a charge upon the county

Section 8 FAILURE TO OBEY SUMMONS WARRANT If any person summoned as herein provided shall fail without reasonable cause to appear with the child in court and there abide the order of the court he may be proceeded against for contempt of court under and in accordance with the provisions of the general statutes In case the summons cannot be served or the parties served fail to obey the same and in any case when it shall be made to appear to the judge that the service will be ineffectual or the welfare of the child requires that he shall be brought forthwith into the custody of the court a warrant may be issued on the order of the court either against the parent or guardian or other person having the custody or control of the child or against the child himself

Section 9 ARREST CUSTODY OF THE CHILD RELEASE Whenever any child is arrested or taken into custody such child shall be immediately taken to the place of detention designated by the court and the officer making the arrest shall immediately notify the court or duly authorized officer or agent thereof and shall file a petition when directed to do so by the court

In any case in which a petition has been filed if it appears from the petition that the child is delinquent or is in such condition or surroundings that the welfare of the child requires that its custody be immediately assumed by the court the judge may endorse or cause to be endorsed upon the summons an order that the officer serving the same shall at once take the child into custody In the case of any child whose custody has been assumed by the court and pending the final disposition of any case the child may be released in the custody of a parent guardian or other person having charge of the child or in the custody of a probation officer or other person appointed by the judge to be brought before the court at the time designated When not released as herein provided such child pending the hearing of the case shall be detained in such place of detention as shall be designated by the court subject to the order of the court

Nothing in this act shall be construed as forbidding any peace officer or probation officer from immediately taking into custody any child who is found committing an act of delinquency or who is reasonable believed to be a fugitive from his parents or from justice or whose surroundings are such as to endanger his health morals or general welfare unless immediate action is taken Provided that in every such case the officer taking the child into custody shall immediately report the fact to the court and the case shall then be proceeded with as provided for in this act

Section 10 TRANSFER FROM OTHER COURTS If during the pendency of any criminal case against any person in any court within any county of the second class it shall be ascertained that said person is under the age of eighteen years it shall be the duty of the court before whom such proceedings are pending to immediately transfer such case together with all of the papers documents and testimony connected therewith to the children's court having jurisdiction The court making such transfer shall order the child to be taken forthwith to the place of detention designated by the children's court or to that court itself but the court making such transfer may release such child in the custody of some suitable person to appear before the children's court at a time designated in said order The children's court shall thereupon proceed to hear and dispose of such case in the same manner as if it had been instituted in that court in the first instance causing a petition to be filed as provided in section five if such action is deemed necessary

Section 11 WAIVER OF JURISDICTION IN CERTAIN CASES If in the case of any child coming before the court upon petition it shall appear that the child is guilty of an offense which under the general statutes would be termed a felony and the child is sixteen years of age or older the judge of the court may after a full investigation and examination and after consultation with the prosecuting attorney of the county if he shall deem it to be for the public interests or the interests of the child waive jurisdiction thereof whereupon such child shall be tried in the court having general criminal jurisdiction of such offense provided however that such criminal court may in its discretion exercise the powers conferred on the children's court in this act in disposing of such case

Section 12 HEARING JUDGMENT Upon the return of the summons or other process or after any child has been taken into custody at the time set for the hearing the court shall proceed to hear and determine the case in a summary manner It may adjourn the hearing from time to time for the purpose of investigation and to enable the court to render such order or judgment as shall best conserve the welfare of the child and carry out the objects of this act During such adjournment the child may be released in the custody of his parents or guardian or may be placed under the supervision of a probation officer At any stage of the case the court may in its discretion appoint any suitable person to be the guardian ad litem of the child for the purposes of the proceedings

If the court shall find that the child is delinquent neglected dependent or otherwise within the provisions of this act it shall adjudge said child to be a ward of the court Thereupon the court may,

1 Place the child on probation subject to the orders of the court or

2 Place the child in a suitable family home in the custody of a relative or other fit person upon such conditions as the court shall determine or

3 Commit the child to a suitable public agency or institution or to any suitable private institution society or association incorporated under the laws of the state and approved by the state department of welfare authorized to care for children or to place them in suitable family homes or

4 Render such further judgment or make such further order as the court may deem to be for the best interests of the child

Section 13 MODIFICATION OF JUDGMENT RETURN OF CHILD TO PARENTS Any order or commitment made by the court in the case of any child shall be subject to such modification or revocation from time to time as the court may deem to be for the welfare of such child except that a child committed to a public institution or agency may be released or discharged from custody only with the approval of such institution or agency

Any parent or guardian or if there be no parent or guardian the next friend of any child who has been or shall hereafter be committed by the court to the custody of an institution agency or person other than a public institution or agency may at any time file with the court a petition verified under oath stating that application for the release of the child has been made to and denied by such institution agency or person or that such institution agency or person has failed to act upon such application within a reasonable time A copy of such petition shall at once be served by the court upon such institution agency or person whose duty it shall be to file a reply to the same within five days If upon examination of the petition and reply the court is of the opinion that an investigation should be had it may upon due notice to all concerned proceed to hear the facts and determine the question at issue It may thereupon return such child to the custody of its parents or guardian or may retain the child in the custody of the institution agency or person and may direct such institution agency or person to make such other arrangements for the child's care and welfare as the circumstances of the case may require or the court may make such other order or commitment as it shall deem to be for the best interests of the child

Section 14 APPOINTMENT OF GUARDIANS Whenever in the course of a proceeding instituted in this act it shall appear to the court that the welfare of any child within its jurisdiction will be promoted by the appointment of an individual as general guardian of its person the court shall have jurisdiction to make such appointment Before making such appointment the court shall cause an order to be issued and served upon the parent or parents of such child in such manner and for such time prior to the hearing as the court may deem reasonable In the appointment of such guardians the court shall be governed by all the provisions of law relating to the appointment of guardians In any case arising under this act the court may determine as between parents or others whether the father or mother or what persons shall have the custody and control of said child

Section 15 SELECTION OF CUSTODIAL AGENCY In committing any child to any institution or other custodial agency other than a public institution or agency or in placing the child under the guardianship or custody of any person other than that of its parents the court shall when practicable select as the custodial agency an institution society or association governed by persons of like religious faith as the parents of such child or an individual of like religious faith

Section 16 SUPPORT OF CHILD COMMITTED TO A CUSTODIAL AGENCY Whenever any child is committed by the court to the custody of an institution agency association society or person other than its parent or guardian compensation for the care of such child when approved by order of the court shall be a charge upon the county or the appropriate subdivision thereof But the court may after giving the parent or other person having the duty under the law to support such child a reasonable opportunity to be heard adjudge that such parent or other person shall pay in such manner as the court may direct such sum as will cover in whole or in part the support of such child and if such parent or other person shall wilfully fail or refuse to pay such sum he may be proceeded against as provided by law in cases of desertion or failure to provide

ARTICLE III

PROCEDURE IN CASES OF ADULTS

Section 17 PROCEDURE IN CONTRIBUTORY DELINQUENCY AND OTHER ADULT CASES In the examination trial or determination of cases of adults charged with contributing to the delinquency neglect or dependency of children or in other cases involving adults coming within the provisions of this act the proceedings shall be conducted in the same manner as is provided by law for the conduct of equity or criminal cases or special proceedings of similar character Proceedings may be instituted by an interested party or on the court's own motion and a reasonable opportunity to appear shall be afforded the respondent The court may issue a summons or in proper cases a warrant or other process in order to secure or to compel the attendance of any necessary person All provisions of the preceding sections of this act relative to procedure in cases of children in so far as such provisions are applicable shall be construed as applying to cases against adults also

Upon the trial of such cases the court is authorized and empowered to render judgment therein and if judgment be rendered sustaining the charge against any such adult the court shall have power to fix such punishment as the law provides or may in the discretion of the court suspend sentence and place on probation and by order impose upon such adult such duty as shall be deemed to be for the best interests of the child or other persons concerned

Section 18 PROCEEDINGS FOR THE SUPPORT OF DEPENDENTS In the case of an adult who deserts abandons or fails to provide for the proper maintenance or care of any person for whose maintenance or care such adult is legally responsible or in the case of any adult adjudged liable for the maintenance or care of any person the court may inquire into and determine the ability of such adult to provide for the maintenance or care of such person in whole or in part and if satisfied that such adult is able to contribute toward the maintenance or care of such person may order that such provision be made The court may direct when how and where money for such maintenance or care shall be paid and in the event that such adult so ordered to pay such money shall wilfully or without just excuse fail or refuse to pay the same in accordance with the court's order said adult shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of the law or such adult may be proceeded against as for contempt of court

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1726, as follows:

An Act creating a commission to study the laws relating to poor districts and to draft such new laws as may be necessary to revise and codify such laws and establish State supervision over poor boards

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That a commission is hereby created to consist of two members of the Senate to be appointed by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate and three members of the House of Representatives to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives The commission shall select from its membership a chairman and shall elect a secretary who need not be a member of the commission It shall be the duty of the commission to study the laws of the Commonwealth relating to poor districts and to draft such new laws as may appear necessary for the purpose of revising and codifying the laws relating to the organization of poor boards and the administration of poor relief with the view of making the law uniform and granting power to the Department of Welfare or other department board or commission of the State government to coordinate and supervise the work of the poor boards

Section 2 The members of the commission shall not receive any compensation for their services but shall be reimbursed for all expenses incurred in the performance of their duties The commission shall have power to employ a secretary and such clerks and stenographers as may be deemed necessary

The commission shall make a report to the General Assembly not later than the first day of February one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five

Section 3 The sum of seventy-five hundred dollars ($7,500) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated to the commission for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this act and for the payment of expenses of the commission and the compensation and expenses of the secretary clerks and stenographers

Payments from said appropriation shall be made on requisition of the chairman of the commission by warrant of the Auditor General or the State Treasurer

The commission shall be furnished the necessary stationery and office supplies and have all necessary printing done by the proper departments upon requisition of the chairman of the commission

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1948, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of an act, approved the eleventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (P. L. 938), entitled "An act to regulate and establish the fees to be charged and collected by the several clerks of the courts of oyer and terminer, general jail delivery, and quarter sessions of the peace, in counties of this Commonwealth having a population of over eight hundred thousand and less than one million five hundred thousand inhabitants, as computed by the last preceding United States census," as amended by extending said act to counties of the second class, changing and further fixing the fees to be charged by said clerks.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1701, entitled:

An Act to amend section two hundred and twenty-two of the act approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 1278), entitled "An act relating to counties of the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes; and revising, amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto"; providing a procedure to provide for the holding of two or more county offices in certain counties by the same person.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. SCHROCK. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend title, page 1, line 9 by striking out the word "certain"

Amend title, page 1, line 9 by inserting after the word "counties" the following: "of the sixth class"

Amend section 1, page 3, line 15 by striking out the word "such"

Amend section 1, page 3, line 15 by inserting after the word "county" the following: "of the sixth class"

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1809, entitled:

An Act to amend section forty of the act approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (P. L. 448), entitled "An act relating to fish; and amending, revising, consolidating and changing the law relating to fish in the inland waters and the boundary lakes and boundary rivers of the Commonwealth," as amended, changing the number of trout to be caught in one day.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

SENATE MESSAGE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented extracts from the Journal of the Senate which were laid upon the table.

STATEMENT BY MR. BENNETT

Mr. BENNETT asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, it is with a good deal of reluctance on my part that I arise at this moment to make this statement, but I feel as though something is due to my own intellectual integrity as well as the intellectual integrity of every man and woman that sits here as a member of this Assembly, and that it is meet and proper that I should do so.

I hold in my hand a "Pittsburgh Post Gazette" of Thursday's issue, April 13th, and in that paper is an article carrying a scarehead:

"GOVERNOR MAY 'STUMP' STATE

"Pinchot Aroused by Failure of Legislators to Act on Program

"Harrisburg, April 12.—(AP)—Aroused over his failure to reach a compromise with legislators on an unemployment relief program, Governor Pinchot is considering "stumping" the State, if major legislation is not soon enacted.

"The controversies which have raged for weeks in the General Assembly over beer control, relief, general appropriations and other issues would be discussed at 'stragetic points,' friends of the Governor intimated.

"Last week Pinchot opened a series of conferences with legislators in an effort to agree on a workable relief program. The compromise failed to materialize. The only measure salvaged from the disagreement was the emergency Talbot bill enacted today appropriating $5,000,000 for immediate jobless relief.

"The compromise effort bogged down on the liquor control issue."

Mr. Speaker and friends and members of this House, it is a sad commentary on this great Keystone State of ours in this year of our Lord, 1933, that the Executive Department, represented and headed by His Excellency, the Governor, has reached a point in dealing with this body, and I presume the Senate, though, to be slightly facetious, in the terms of Hollywood, the Governor, playing the part of Marie Dressler, is trying to steal the show from everybody that is on the site. We have been threatened, browbeaten, bulldozed and lectured from the rostrum of this House like a lot of pupils that come into school and whose faces are not clean and whose hair, including my own, is not properly creased.

What the Governor's purpose is, I don't know. There must undoubtedly be a Pinchot purpose, when, according to the morning paper, they say, "stragetic points of Pennsylvania." What that purpose is I don't know. I don't know what frustrated ambition there may be but I do, with all the fiber of my soul, mind and body, stand on this floor, and I think I express the sentiments of the majority of this House when I say that it is highly unfair, exceedingly unethical and intellectually dishonest for His Excellency, the Governor, to look at us, men and women, who have come here as being kind of an unnecessary appendage to his Imperial Highness, the Governor. I, for one, distinctly, finally, definitely and with all the earnestness of my mind and body, resent the Governor looking at me as an unnecessary appendage, having been elected from the great city of Philadelphia.

I carry no brief for this House, and I am neither bitter nor critical with His Excellency, the Governor, but I think his position, as I said last night in voting for the salary reduction of this body, is that of putting us in the position of "be damned if you do and be damned if you don't," and I say that that position is wholly unfair, and I think that it poorly becomes the Governor of the greatest State in the Union, an Empire in itself, I think it is unfair, I think it borders on heresy and insult when every act of ours is appropriated, if it has merit, to his own particular political ambition and I again personally resent him making that statement, I again resent the Governor deliberately stealing the show as the modern Marie Dressler, from we the supernumaries on the lot and standing perpetually and consistently and insistently in the limelight of wanting the front page.

There is also in this morning's Philadelphia Inquirer the observations of a trained, highly disciplined commentator and observer of politics, politically representing a paper that before this and to the present they have a right to be proud of.

May I read what the Inquirer said this morning:

"Fiddler Pinchot derived great satisfaction from signing the measure and a statement issued by him indicated he regarded the whole thing as something in the nature of a personal victory.

"But his sacred fund of nearly $14,000,000 of unencumbered balance in the State Treasury is to be tapped to meet the emergency. The Governor, however, is still trying to convey the impression that this money will not be touched. Whether it is or not, the developments of the day show that after weeks of weary haggling he finally condescended to hear the wails and the pleadings of the distressed."

We have been accused by His Excellency, the Governor, from that rostrum, directly in your chin and face and mine, as sitting here wasting the taxpayers money and in fact almost to the point of annoying His Excellency, the Governor.

I think, my friends, it is highly unfair for this legally and constitutionally constituted body to lay here, to sit here supinely and receive the indictment and the condemnation of this Imperial Bismark, this modern Warren Hastings, the modern Edmund Burke, doing all good deeds, to sit here as duly elected by their constituents and say nothing.

My friends, to steal credit for the five million dollars that was appropriated here yesterday, and I challenge the Governor to the contrary, it was not the creature of his creation nor was it the outcome of his mind. It was forced on him; he was compelled to take it by the men who sat in that conference and who showed to him the five million dollars could be and was appropriated.

I think it wholly unfair, I think it is beyond all common decency for the members of this body to sit here and listen to all of this condemnation and criticism which is without reason and for you and me to be held up to shame and condemned by the people of this great State.

I want to say to you that as far as I am concerned I have no apologies to make to the great citizenry of Pennsylvania, no apologies to my own people in Philadelphia that I represent in a feeble way, and I will not make any apology to His Excellency, the Governor, without any disrespect to his office. I admire, and I was trained to give respect to authority and government, and was taught that it should receive the cooperation that it requires and demands.

I refuse to stand here and be made a plaything of, an incongruous part of this Assembly for His Excellency, the Governor of the State. My friends, you are to be used as a stepladder to further his political ambitions. Notice has been served on this body and to each of us and you are the mediums for his condemnation, with his destructive tongue that is lacking expression and without compromise with this body which he has not once, my friends, attempted to make.

You have sat here and listened to his indictments but not his compromise; you have sat here and listened to his condemnation and not his co-operation. You have sat here to be told that you are doing nothing, and I do not know, and I have been in close touch with the politics of Pennsylvania for twenty years both as a participant and as an observer, and I don't know of a time of greater emergency, I don't know of a time when the men and women of this House gave greater efforts in their work, nor a time when there was greater accomplishment than has been done in the face of opposition from the Executive's office.

I ask you, friends, without prejudice, malice or personal feeling, I ask you to refuse to listen to the efforts being made for the employment of all selfish means to embarrass you, and I ask you to go back to your constituency and tell the truth there, that you are representing them just as well as they have ever been represented in this House, and that you will not bow your neck to political methods of a man who seeks to destroy with one swoop the essentials of integrity and honor and self respect of every member sitting in this House.

STATEMENT BY MR. HERMANSEN

Mr. HERMANSEN asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have listened to talks which have been made against the Chief Executive and which I do not believe to be true. I have sat here two or three sessions now and listened to one talk after another against the Governor without anyone ever coming to his defense. He has been accused of being a politician, but it has never been proven to my satisfaction that he is any more of a politician than those who are trying to frustrate his efforts.

They say that he comes out in the newspaper and says that he is going to tour the State in behalf of the program which he is in favor of. I cannot see where anyone can deny him that privilege when you look over the program he sponsored. There is nothing political in that program that should impeach him for being a politician. He asks for poor relief taxes of seven million five hundred thousand dollars. It was agreed to. He asked for a foreign corporation tax which would bring three million dollars to the State, and it was not even considered. He asked for a personal property tax with bank deposits exempt, and it was not considered. He asked for the Sterling economies and they were granted. Now we have thirteen and a half million dollars out of the twenty-four and a half million dollars that is required, and the balance is still to be raised. Now, why is it that these other two subjects that have been brought up for taxation have not gotten the same consideration? It seems to me there is something which should be explained in this program. I realize it is an easy matter to get up and condemn and criticize, but when you do that, I would like to see these people offer something more constructive instead of what they are criticizing. I know it is not going to add to my popularity to stand here and defend the Governor, but nevertheless I will do so until I am personally convinced there is something wrong.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentlemen will be entered in the Journal and printed in full.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask if these statements are in order under the order of the day?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is advised that they come before the House under the question of unanimous consent.

Mr. WILSON. I have no objection to anyone making a statement that wants to, but here is a third reading calendar and I would like to get to have some of these bills acted upon.

The SPEAKER. The Chair is in hearty accord with the gentleman from McKean, but this is for the House to decide. Does the Chair hear objection? The Chair hears none and consent is granted.

Mr. JOHN J. KANE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I believe it is the unanimous opinion of the Democratic members of this House that much more can be accomplished in the interests of the people by taking up the regular business of the House than by listening to the different factions of the Republican party discussing the political situation in Pennsylvania.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1640, entitled:

An Act to amend section forty-five of the act approved the fifteenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (P. L. 809), entitled "An act relating to the organization, maintenance, and operation of the Department of Banking, and the scope of its supervision and control over corporations, partnerships, unincorporated associations, and individuals, and the assets and liabilities thereof; providing penalties for the enforcement of its provisions and repealing the Banking Department Act of nineteen hundred and nineteen, with table of contents," as amended, requiring accounts filed by the Secretary of Banking in the office of the prothonotary, to be recorded.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

UNANIMOUS CONSENT REFUSED

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, I would like the permission of the House to call up out of order on the third reading calendar House Bill No. 1729, Senate Bill No. 639, on page 69.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg, is advised that this bill is out of order at the present time.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of inquiry.

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, may that be in order by unanimous consent of the House.

The SPEAKER. The Chair informs the gentleman that anything is in order that the House gives unanimous consent to. The only fear we have, if we attempt to clear the calendar up today is that these interruptions will seriously delay us.

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this is an important bill. It is legislation that relieves the Insurance Department and because of the importance of the bill, I feel justified in calling up this bill at the present time. If I may be permitted I would call up Senate Bill No. 639.

The SPEAKER. Does the Chair hear objections.

Mr. WELSH. I object, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears objections to the granting of unanimous consent.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1403, entitled:

An Act authorizing the stay of eviction proceedings under certain circumstances.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, ordinarily I would not arise on a bill the contents of which are so plain, but with your indulgence for a few moments, I will endeavor to explain the bill, and with your further indulgence I will give you two reasons why I am on the floor of the House.

Since I have been a member of this House my young daughter who is now twelve years of age has never been in the House, and is sitting on the side. She came here today and I feel that I owe it to her to show her how well or how poorly her dad can address the House. That is one of the reasons why I get up at this time.

The second reason I get up is to pay a little tribute to another lady, a little older, and that is the lady from Philadelphia, Miss Brancato, with whom for the first time, I think I am in accord. My recollection is that we have voted on opposite sides on every other occasion with few exceptions.

The lady from Philadelphia, Miss Brancato, has been very much interested in legislation such as is about to be acted on here, and has introduced a bill, House Bill No. 1395 on the same subject, and had it been known to me when the bill was introduced I would have endeavored to secure a place for her bill on the calendar instead of my own.

Coming back to this bill I want to say that all that this bills does is to give to the Court of Common Pleas of the various counties the right to stay convictions for a reasonable length of time where it is shown that the person who is about to be evicted is incapable of securing employment. Where a person can secure employment, if they are unemployed, the judge has no right to stay the eviction, but where he cannot secure employment and is destitute the Court of Common Pleas can stay the eviction. This seems to be a meritorious bill. In order that delay cannot enter into it for an unreasonable length of time there is a provision in the bill that when a person is about to be evicted that the hearing must be had within five days and I feel that both the landlord and the tenant will be protected.

I ask you to support this bill. You may act on all or any of the reasons I have given you or you may omit such as you see fit, but not the one that pertains to my little daughter.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Cordier,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1564, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act, approved the twenty-second day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (P. L. 883), entitled, "An act relating to the proceedings where goods or chattels have been levied upon or seized by the sheriff, and claimed to belong to others than the defendant in the execution or process, and relieving the sheriff from liability therfor," by prescribing procedure upon rules for interpleaders.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. McELWEE. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1340, entitled:

An Act to amend clause (d) as amended of section fifty-nine of the act, approved the seventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws, four hundred and forty-seven), entitled "An act relating to the administration and distribution of the estates of decedents and of minors, and of trust estates; including the appointment, bonds, rights, powers, duties, liabilities, accounts, discharge and removal of executors, administrators, guardians and trustees, herein designated as fiduciaries; the administsration and distribution of the estates of presumed decedents; widow's and children's exemptions; debts of decedents, rents of real estate as assets for payment thereof, the lien thereof, judgments and executions therefor, sales and mortgages of real estate for the payment thereof, and the discharge of real estate from the lien thereof; contracts of decedents for the sale or purchase of real estate; legacies, including legacies charged on land; the discharge of residuary estates and of real estate from the lien of legacies and other charges; the appraisement of real estate devised at a valuation; the ascertainment of the curtilage of dwelling houses or other buildings devised; the abatement and survival of actions and the substitution of executors and administrators therein, and suits against fiduciaries; investments by fiduciaries; the organization of corporations to carry on the business of decedents; the audit and review of accounts of fiduciaries; refunding bonds; transcripts to the court of common pleas of balances due by fiduciaries; the rights, powers and liabilities of non-resident and foreign fiduciaries; the appointment, bonds, rights, powers, duties and liabilities of trustees durante absentia; the recording and registration of decrees, reports and other proceedings, and the fees therefor; appeals in certain cases; and also generally dealing with the jurisdiction, powers and procedure of the orphans' court in all matters relating to fiduciaries concerned with the estates of decedents," by providing for the action by the natural guardian, or the person by whom the minor is maintained, for the minor upon leave of court and without formal appointment, in matters relating to real estate in which the share of the minor does not exceed two hundred dollars.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

NAYS—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1563, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act, approved the twenty-second day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (P. L. 883), entitled "An act relating to proceedings where goods or chattels have been levied upon or seized by the sheriff and claimed to belong to others than the defendant in the execution or process, and relieving the sheriff from liability therefor,," by further prescribing procedure upon rules for interpleaders.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lawrence, Mr. McElwee, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McELWEE. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the sponsor of this bill whether or not under the provisions under which this bill is drawn up if it would make it more difficult to prove a claim for property.

Mr. McELWEE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in answer to the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Tahl, I would say that the purpose of this bill is to simplify the practice, to clarify the practice, in interpleader proceedings and not to make it more difficult for anybody.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, is it not a fact that under the provisions of this bill, it is necessary first to prove your claim, first before a judge and then after you proved your claim before a judge to get an interpleader you would have to prove it again before a jury.

Mr. McELWEE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill does not require as much preliminary proof as the existing law requires. Under the existing law it provides for a preliminary hearing in all cases, at least in essentially all cases. This bill provides that when the necessity for such a preliminary hearing does not appear upon the pleadings that the interpleader is either denied or provided for as of course.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I rise to oppose this bill for this reason. I read that bill very carefully and I am convinced that under the provisions of this bill that when a poor man is levied upon he will have to first prove his claim before the judge and then in order to get the right to go before a jury and to prove that the household goods levied upon do not belong to the defendant and then after he does that he will again have to prove his claim before the jury and I think that under the provisions of this bill, it will make it almost impossible for a woman whose household goods are levied upon to prove her case in order to prevent being sold out and for that reason I ask you to vote no on the bill.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Lawrence, Mr. McElwee.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lawrence, Mr. McElwee, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McELWEE. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask Mr. McElwee, as a member of the Judiciary General Committee have you not made a very careful study of this question of interpleader.

Mr. McELWEE. I would have to answer that "yes," Mr. Speaker. I might also add that for at least three years I have given the matter of interpleaders very considerable study outside of my work in the Judiciary General Committee.

Mr. TURNER. As a member of the bar, in addition to your place on the Judiciary General Committee, you have given considerable study to the question of the interpleader act?

Mr. McELWEE. I have.

Mr. TURNER. Does this amendment which you propose add any additional burden upon the claimant.

Mr. McELWEE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in my opinion it relieves the claimant of some of the burdens now imposed upon the claimant under existing laws and in addition to that it certainly clarifies the practice and makes it more simple.

Mr, TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I would not take the time under the circumstances were it not in my opinion necessary to say this to the members of the House who are not members of the bar.

The Judiciary General Committee in this session has made a very careful study of this question. There were two bills here. The bill before you I know has had very careful consideration by a former member of the House, from my county, who for many years has been a sheriffs solicitor, and he says that the purpose of this act is to clarify and simplify the law and does not add further burdens on the claimant. Therefore, I ask you by reason of the fact that it has had this careful study and consideration by men who know this subject and who are simply seeking to clarify an act which has been very difficult for the bar and which has needed clarification, to support this measure. We think they have made every attempt to do it in this act.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I just want to say one word in addition to what Mr. Turner has said. The most difficult practice, when a person's goods are levied on, the most troublesome thing is to get into an interpleader proceeding. It is the hardest thing to work out. There is not any more conscientious lawyer in the House than the gentleman from Lawrence, Mr. McElwee. He has made a thorough study, and if an improvement in the interpleader act can be worked out, it will be a help to the members of the bar and to the poor debtor whose goods are levied on, I don't think the assertion ought to be made on the floor of this House that it will make the proceeding harder, because it will make it very much easier.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, if you examine this bill, you will find on page three of the bill in the first place is the claim for the property filed. Then after the claim is filed by the person whose goods are improperly levied on, what does he have to do? If there is an objection to the claim, which is an objection to the claim by the plaintiff who tries to seize the goods, he files an answer, and does that by saying that the claim is improper. Now, under this bill what does he have to do? Then the man who claims the goods improperly levied on has to file papers and the other party has to file papers; four or five different pleadings have to be filed. Then what happens? I will read on page four of the bill: "In all cases where an interpleader is opposed and answers and replies filed, the matter shall be placed on the earliest argument or motion list, and the court or a Judge thereof shall hear the party, and if the claimant or person or persons in possession make out a prima facia case, showing a prima facia title and right of possession in said goods and chattels claimed at the time of levy or attachment was made, then the court shall make said rule absolute," which means that he must prove his case in the first instance. He must prove he has a right to the goods, and after he satisfies the judge that the goods are improperly levied on, he has to appear before a jury and try it again. I, as a practicing lawyer, know this procedure very well.

I have the highest regard for the gentleman from Lawrence, Mr. McElwee. It is merely a difference in the point of view. My point is that I want to help the poor man, and I say this bill makes it more difficult for the poor man to prove his claim, and that is the reason I ask you to defeat this bill.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 571, entitled:

An Act to amend section one hundred and seventy-one of the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 1278), entitled, "An act relating to counties of the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes; and revising, amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto," as amended, by decreasing and limiting the compensation of the members of the board of viewers in counties of the fourth, fifth and sixth classes.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. McCREARY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I want to add or express a few words in favor of this bill, but before I do, will you permit me to digress a little because this bill is very closely connected with one that you passed a few hours ago against which I protested. This bill today is an amendment only. It is a bill that has been on the calendar probably twenty years, and it is an older sister of the bill that you passed yesterday, and the irony of fate is that that bill had to come before this House first instead of the other way around. If this bill, this amendment, had come before this House first, then I could have explained to you the variation between the two, and I am satisfied that your answer and your vote on that other bill would have been "no" instead of "yes."

Now, Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, I had thought at the start of this session that if the day should ever come when I got one of my bills out of committee and got it before this House, I would be as happy as a boy with his first pair of long pants, and now I am frightened. When I see the way this House has treated a number of other good, respectable and honorable bills, then I am frightened, and afraid to expose this nice, innocent bill of mine to the slings and arrows of this House. I am between the devil and the deep blue sea, I am afraid to send it back to committee and I am afraid to trust it on the floor of this House. I think the only thing that is left for me to do is to shut my eyes and to holler "shoot."

This bill is an amendment to a bill that has been on the statute books for twenty years, and it has got a record of graft time and again all the way down through. It has had four different amendments and every one was an increase in the salary and the way it stands today the viewers of these counties, and my county, are getting twelve dollars a day and the record in my county for 1931 shows that the viewers got six thousand nine hundred and seventy-one dollars and thirty cents for one years work. When I went to the Court House to find out what the taxpayers got for that $6,971.30, there was not a man in the Court House could tell me. I went to the Controller's office and asked him and he said that I should go to the Engineer and I went to the Engineer and he said no, that I should go to the Clerk of the Courts. I went to the Clerk of the Courts and he said that it was in the records some place and that it would probably take a week to hunt it up. I told him that I was not in any hurry and told him to hunt it up. I went back sometime afterward and got some of it, and the lady said to me that that was not all, that some of the original papers were in the Prothonotary's office. I went to the Prothonotary's office and he said to me he had them and that he could put a clerk on.

When I got this information handed over to me, it showed that there were thirty-five views during the year which cost the taxpayers of the county six thousand nine hundred and seventy-one dollars and thirty cents, which, if you take a pencil, you will find is nearly two hundred dollars a view, and it took three men six days in every view at twelve dollars a day. Now, this bill amends that by placing the wage at seven dollars and a half a day instead of twelve dollars a day and stipulates that they are to put in full days and not go six times on six different days for one view when they can do three or four or five or even six views on the same day.

Ladies and gentleman of the House, this is simply a bill to compel the county officials to take a fair wage and do a fair day's work for the day's pay. It is worthy of the vote of everyone of you. It is true not only in Erie County but in all the counties down to the seventh and eighth classes, and therefore I ask you to treat this, my first bill, kindly and generously as though it were your own and vote yes.

Shall the bill pass finally?

NAYS—2

Carson,	Chervenak,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 329, as follows:

An Act to amend sections twenty-nine and thirty-one of the act approved the sixteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws two hundred seven) entitled "An act providing when how upon what property and to what extent liens shall be allowed for taxes and for municipal improvements for the removal of nuisances and for water rents or rates sewer rates and lighting rates for the procedure upon claims filed therefor the methods for preserving such liens and enforcing payment of such claims the effect of judicial sales of the properties liened the distribution of the proceeds of such sales and the redemption of the property therefrom for the lien and collection of certain taxes heretofore assessed and of claims for municipal improvements made and nuisances removed within six months before the passage of this act and for the procedure on tax and municipal claims filed under other and prior acts of Assembly" by providing that under certain circumstances a municipality may purchase for the record costs subject to the lien of taxes and municipal claims property sold to satisfy a judgment on a tax or municipal claim and that a judicial sale on a tax or municipal claim shall discharge all mortgages ground-rents and other charges on or estates in the land included in the lien and repealing certain acts or parts of acts so far as they may be inconsistent with this amendment

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That sections twenty-nine and thirty-one of the act approved the sixteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws two hundred seven) entitled "An act providing when how upon what property and to what extent liens shall be allowed for taxes and for municipal improvements for the removal of nuisances and for water rents or rates sewer rates and lighting rates for the procedure upon claims filed therefor the methods for preserving such liens and enforcing payment of such claims the effect of judicial sales of the properties liened the distribution of the proceeds of such sales and the redemption of the property therefrom for the lien and collection of certain taxes heretofore assessed and of claims for municipal improvements made and nuisances removed within six months before the passage of this act for the procedure on tax and municipal claims filed under other and prior acts of Assembly" are hereby amended to read as follows

Section 29 The plaintiff in any judgment recovered on a tax or municipal claim may upon paying the sheriff's costs fix an upset price to be realized at any sale under such judgment sufficient to pay all taxes and municipal claims and all accrued but unfiled taxes and claims in full No sale shall be made on a judgment recovered on a tax or municipal claim except for a sum sufficient to pay all taxes and municipal claims in full except as hereinafter provided and [the plaintiff in such judgment may purchase the property at such sale for that sum if no one bids a higher price therefor] except when a municipality is the real plaintiff in such judgment and is the only bidder at such sale said municipality may purchase the property for the record costs thereon subject to the lien of all taxes and municipal claims

Section 31 The lien of a tax or a municipal claim shall not be divested by any judicial sale of the property liened where the amount due is indefinite or undetermined or where the same is not due and payable nor shall the lien of a tax or municipal claim be divested by any judicial sale of the property liened as respects so much thereof as the proceeds of such sale may be insufficient to discharge nor except as hereinafter provided shall a judicial sale of the property liened under a judgment obtained on a tax or municipal claim discharge the lien of any other tax or municipal claim than that upon which said sale is had except to the extent that the proceeds realized are sufficient for its payment after paying the costs and expenses of the sale and of the writ upon which it was made and any other prior tax or municipal claims to which the fund may first be applicable On any such sale being made all tax claims shall be paid out of the proceeds thereof first the oldest tax having priority and municipal claims shall be paid next the oldest in point of lien having priority

Mortgages and ground rents [and other charges on and estates in the property] which were recorded [or created where recording is not required] before any tax other than for the current year accrued or before the actual doing of the work in front of or upon the particular property for which the municipal claim is filed shall not be disturbed by [such sale] any judicial sale of the property liened under a judgment obtained on a municipal claim nor by a judicial sale on a tax lien before the expiration of the second calendar year after that in which the tax covered by the lien was first payable and where no notice has been given to the mortgage owner or ground rent owner as hereinafter provided unless a prior lien is also discharged thereby

A judicial sale on a tax lien after the expiration of the second calendar year after that in which the tax is first payable shall discharge and divest all mortgages and ground rents on the property liened whether the said mortgages or ground rents were recorded or created prior or subsequent to any tax other than for the current year accrued provided that the claimant in such tax claim shall give at least twenty days written notice of his intention to issue such execution to the owner or owners of any mortgage or ground rent encumbering the property to be sold prior to the issuance thereof

This notice shall contain the court term and number of the tax lien a description of the property liened and the record of the mortgage or ground rent in question Service of the notice may be made in the manner provided by law for the service of a summons in assumpit or it may be made by mailing a registered letter addressed to the owner or owners of said mortgage at the residence designated in the certificate of the owners address accompanying the mortgage or its assignment and recorded therewith Service may also be made by mailing a registered letter to any owner or owners of any mortgage or ground rent covering the liened property who is a non-resident of the County in which the liened property is located In the event that the address of the owner of said mortgage or ground rent is not given in any certificate accompanying the mortgage or ground rent and the claimant or the person making the affidavit of service on its behalf does not know and has not been able to ascertain the address or addresses of some of or all of said owners service of notice as to the owners whose addresses are unknown or can not be ascertained by claimant or affiant may be made upon such owners by leaving a copy of the notice with the occupants of the land or if vacant by posting such notice An affidavit of service of notice shall be filed of record before the execution is issued on the tax lien The affidavit shall set forth when upon whom and in what manner service was made and shall be accompanied with a copy of the notice given Notice need not be given to owners whose names do not appear of record in the Office of the Recorder of Deeds Open notorious continuous and permanent easements shall not be discharged by a judicial sale on a tax or municipal claim

[In case the property is not sold for the sum sufficient to pay all taxes and municipal claims together with the cost thereon the plaintiff in any such claim may postpone the sale without payment of costs and file his petition setting forth that more than one year has elapsed since the filing of his claim that he has exposed the property to sheriff's sale thereunder and was unable to obtain a bid sufficient to pay the upset price in full and if a municipal claimant other than a municipality that he will bid sufficient to pay the upset price and upon the production of searches or a title insurance policy showing the state of the record and the ownership of the property and of all tax and municipal claims mortgages ground-rents or other charges on or estates in the land the court shall grant a rule upon all parties thus shown to be interested to appear and show cause why a decree should not be made that said property be sold freed and cleared of their respective claims mortgages charges and estates If upon a hearing thereafter the court is satisfied that service has been made of said rule upon the parties respondent in the manner provided in this act for the service of writs of scire facias to obtain judgments upon tax and municipal claims and that the facts stated in the petition be true it shall order and decree that said property be sold at a subsequent sheriff's sale day to be fixed by the court without further advertisement clear of all claims liens mortgages charges and estates to the highest bidder at such sale and the proceeds realized therefrom shall be distributed in accordance with the priority of such claims and the purchaser at such sale shall take and forever thereafter have an absolute title to the property sold free and discharged of all tax and municipal claims liens mortgages charges and estates of whatsoever kind subject only to the right of redemption as provided by law

Any person interested may at any time before the sale pay the petitioner the whole of his claim with interest and costs whereupon the proceedings on petition shall at once determine

For the purpose of enabling the petitioner in any such proceedings to give the notice required he may take the testimony of the defendant in the claim or of any other person whom he may have reason to believe has knowledge of the whereabouts of any of the parties respondent either by deposition commission or letters rogatory]

The owner of the mortgage ground-rent whose mortgage ground-rent has been discharged or divested by such sale may redeem the same at any time within one year from the date of the acknowledgment of the sheriff's deed therefor as provided in section thirty-two of the act to which this is an amendment The purchaser of the property so sold on a tax or claim after the expiration of the second calendar year in which the tax covered by the lien is first payable and after service of notice as hereinbefore provided for shall hold the same free and clear of said mortgages ground-rents subject only to rights of redemption

Any county municipality township or school district being a claimant shall have the right and is hereby empowered to bid and become the purchaser of the property at such sale and while the said property so purchased is held and owned by either a county or a municipality township or school district it shall not be subject to tax claims unless it be redeemed by the former owner or other person having the right to redeem as provided by law If however a county municipality township or school district shall become the purchaser at said sale the former owner or other person desiring to redeem shall pay all taxes and municipal claims accrued and chargable against the property prior to the sale thereof together with the costs and interest thereon and also all taxes and claims whether filed or not which would have accrued and become chargable against the property had the same been purchased at the sale by some party other than the county city or other municipal division

Upon the delivery by the sheriff of a deed for any property sold under a tax or municipal claim the judgment upon which such sale was had shall thereupon and forever thereafter be final and conclusive as to all matters of defense which could have been raised in the proceeding including payment and no error or irregularity in obtaining or entering of such judgment shall [effect] affect the validity thereof

Section 2 Insofar as they may be inconsistent herewith or supplied hereby the following acts or parts of acts are hereby repealed

Sections four and five of the act approved the sixteenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and forty-five (Pamphlet Laws four hundred eighty-eight) entitled "A supplement to an act passed the sixth day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty entitled 'A supplement to an act entitled "An act for taking lands in execution for the payment of debts" passed in one thousand seven hundred and five' "

And sections one and two of the act approved the thirtieth day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred seventy-four) entitled "An act relating to judicial sales and sales upon writs of execution or otherwise and preserving the lien of mortgages on real estate other than upon unseated lands"

Section 3 All other acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

Section 4 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

The SPEAKER. The Chair requests the gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Hutton, to preside over the body.

(MR. HUTTON IN THE CHAIR)

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 68, entitled:

An Act for the relief of owners and operators of motor vehicles from liability for injuries, death and loss suffered by guests, except in certain cases.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading,

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of the bill, the gentleman from Union, Mr. Baker.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Union, Mr. Baker, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BAKER. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, is it the intent of this bill to relieve the owner or driver of an automobile from liability for injuries caused to any guest in his automobile?

Mr. BAKER. Mr. Speaker, the intent of this bill is to provide that guests ride at their own risk.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, would that not also include members of the owner's family.

Mr. BAKER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I do not think it is the intent of this bill to cover that point. This bill would relieve the owner or operator of a motor vehicle of responsibility for injury; that is the responsibility of the owner or operator of a motor vehicle such as one that picked up a hitch hiker or had a guest.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask under the terms of this bill, is not a member of the owner's family also included as a guest.

Mr. BAKER. I would not say so, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I think this bill as drawn does not exemplify what Mr. Baker had in mind when it was drawn. Under the terms as I recollect them, a member of the owner's family also would be in the same catagory as a guest and this bill specifically says that the owners should be relieved from liability for injury to guests in automobile accidents when that injury is due to negligence that is wanton or wilful. Under the circumstances, any friend, any member of your family, any relative riding in your automobile injured by your negligence would lose his light to recovery from you if this bill were passed. If this bill were amended to include specifically hitchhikers and a special class of individuals I would be in favor of it, but as it is now drawn it prevents the guest in your automobile from the ability to recover from you in case of injury.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen, as I understand this bill it is a measure that would permit the insurance companies to evade liability for damages for which you are paying premiums to protect you. That is the real purpose back of it. I feel it should be voted down.

Mr. BAKER. Mr. Speaker and members of this Assembly, this bill is a very brief measure, having but twelve typewritten lines and contains one hundred and twenty words. I would like to advise the members of this House, that this bill, the intent of the bill, is this; that the owner or operator of a motor vehicle does not provide insurance for a guest riding with him. The bill is very plain and I think the members have had a chance to study this bill since the fourth day of January. I kindly ask your favorable consideration in casting your vote for this bill.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill, Mr. Baker.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Union, Mr. Baker, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BAKER. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, can you point out to the House where this bill says that it requires the owner of an automobile to carry insurance.

Mr. BAKER. Mr. Speaker, I would answer the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Wilson, in this respect; there is no question of doubt but what in certain cases the owner or operator of a motor vehicle is liable for all injuries.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is not answering my question. Where is the section that says what you said to this House that it relieves the owner or operator of a motor vehicle from the requirement to carry insurance?

Mr. BAKER. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman permit me to read the bill.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I have read it. I want the gentleman from Union, Mr. Baker, to point out to the House where the things he said are in the bill.

Mr. BAKER. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman permit me to read the bill.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I wish the gentleman would answer my question and then I wish to speak on it.

Mr. Speaker and members of the House. This bill takes away from the party who rides in the car of a person who is guilty of gross negligence and disregards their rights and injures them or causes their death, their right of an action for damages unless the negligence is wilful and wanton, and I say to you it is a very dangerous piece of legislation. You may have a case where some one asks a neighbor to go out in a car for a ride, people who are very friendly and the operator of the car is guilty of gross negligence. Under the law at the present time they have a right to recover, but this bill takes away the right to recover and I say that it should not be passed by this House, and I say to you further that we did not intend to send it out on the floor of the House.

Mr. WAY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Wilson.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Wilson, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WAY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Wilson, whether he has knowledge of friendly neighbors going out in a car who have brought procedure against the owner of the car and recovered from the insurance company.

Mr. WILSON. Yes, Mr. Speaker, there are lots of those cases. There are abuses, but I say in order to stop these abuses we should not take away the right of action on the part of people who are injured or the friends of those who are killed. We have many abuses in many other kinds of civil action; many people bring suits to harass people, but we don't take the right to bring suits away from them. These rights exist and are based on law and we don't take that right away.

Mr. WAY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill, as the sponsor has said, has been on the floor of the House for some time, and in committee some time before it came on the floor of the House. The members have had sufficient time to study the worth of this bill. I believe you will agree with me under the present law the owners of automobiles can be imposed upon, particularly in friendly suits, where the verdicts have been given and where the insurance companies have been required to pay the insurance. The insurance rates have been raised as a result of the abuse of this law. If the relative or any guest does not wish to accept the privilege of a man's car, then I say that we should not pass legislation to defend these cases when so many of them are brought through friends. If the driver or owner of a car is known to be reckless, it is the guest's privilege not to accept his hospitality and be his guest.

Gentlemen, I believe this piece of legislation is one that should pass in this House, and I hope that this House will pass this measure, and by doing so, correct an evil that has been very much abused and which is imposed not only on the owners of automobiles, but on insurance companies.

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, I would like to make only one observation with reference to the merits of the bill, aside from the fact that as this House knows, this bill was reported out of committee for two readings at the request of the sponsor, but after such report and the bill passing two readings the bill failed to come back to the committee as a result of the action of the sponsor.

As far as the merits are concerned, at the present time a guest in an automobile is entitled to reasonable protection. In other words, if someone invites you as his guest to ride in his automobile at the present time, he owes to you as a result of his invitation the ordinary protection of ordinary prudence that a careful man exercises for himself. He owes you that same duty. This bill would change the present law in that respect. Under the present law a guest in an automobile cannot recover as a result of an injury sustained in an automobile if he has participated in the negligence of the operator of the automobile, if he has affirmed the wrong-doing of the operator of the automobile; if the operator of the automobile runs his car at sixty miles an hour and the guest doesn't object, and there is an accident, the guest cannot recover, but where the guest has been hurt, and the guest has not affirmed the action and joined in the wrong-doing of the operator of the car, he has a right of action. This bill would create this situation; that at no time would a guest have a right to recover for injuries to himself, nor could his wife and children recover for his death unless the driver or the operator willfully and wantonly caused the death or injury to that guest. Maybe you are the guest in an automobile. The driver insists on taking his hand off the wheel to light a cigar. You say to him, "Don't do that, you will lose control of the car." He says, "Don't be a back seat driver," and he insists on and continues to take his hands off the wheel. You can't get out of the automobile, the car is going at sixty miles an hour, and your safety and your very life depends on the action of that driver. You have done your part, you have protested and there may be an accident, but he says in so many words, "Mind your own business." Now, in spite of your protest, he negligently takes his hands off the wheel—and I am stating an actual case—the car leaves the road and smashes into a fence and your wife is in the back of the car and she is thrown forward and the side of her face is torn away by the furniture on the door. The case that I have in mind was of a woman who stayed in the hospital for six months and an ambulance brought her to Philadelphia where surgeons tried to build up her face, but she came out of the hospital after six months with only half of her original face. One of her eyes was sunk a half inch below the other eye. The expenses in connection with this totalled upwards of six thousand dollars. Her husband could not afford to pay the hospital bill. The accident was caused simply by the negligence of the operator of the automobile. It is certain that no careful operator would, and this operator did not, intend to destroy this woman's face for the rest of her life. He did not intend that the husband should be liable for upwards of six thousand dollars of hospital bills. Under this act this woman could not recover one cent. As it was the insurance company paid her expenses but nothing more. It was a settlement that was arrived at. Stripped of all argument this bill is merely an attempt to take away the protection of an operator of a car on his policy, so far as his liability to a guest is concerned. At the present time the policy of the liability insurance companies in Pennsylvania afford protection not only to the operator, but to anybody in the car that is his guest with his consent. Despite the payment of your premium this bill would relieve the insurance company of that responsibility.

This is a bill that should be entitled, "For the relief of the insurance companies," and takes away from the guest, who has a right to expect reasonable prudence and care is going to be exercised by the operator, the possibility of recovering for damages, and it takes away from him the possibility of the recovery of damages for the loss of life, merely to relieve the insurance companies.

This bill has no right to be on the floor of the House. The sub-committee was positively against it, and the main committee was totally against it, and it is here merely as a breach of faith and broken promises on the part of the sponsor, and in addition to that it don't have the least bit of merit and ought to be defeated.

Mr. WAY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am extremely sorry that I have to take a different position than that of my good friend from Philadelphia. From the arguments advanced, my good friends, you might take it that the driver of a car is almost always reckless and has no interest in his own welfare, or the health or the welfare of the family or the guest who accepts an invitation to occupy a seat in his car. Now, the gentleman has said that this bill should not have appeared on the floor of the House. The members of this House voted to keep this bill on the floor of the House, and on our calendar. Therefore, the members of this House must have seen some merit in this bill.

Members of this House, I think the bill has merit, not only in the protection to the owner of the car, but the welfare of the insurance company which the car helps to keep up from other insurance, and the welfare of his guest as well. If the guest does not want to accept the hospitality of the owner of the car, he does not need to.

Mr. BAKER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I would like to qualify one statement made by my colleague, the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg. I did not break my promise. I promised to offer a motion that this bill be recommitted after two readings. On account of the merits of this bill and the popularity of this bill, after I had fulfilled my promise, the members of this House did not see fit to take this bill off the calendar. That is the truth. I did make my motion, as I promised to. I am not responsible and cannot tell what action the members of this House will take on my motion.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I want to answer that statement by saying that there is more than one way of making a motion, and if the gentleman who is the sponsor of this bill had stood on this floor and insisted, the House would have sent the bill back. He did make the motion, but there is more than one way of making a motion. Had he insisted on it going back, it would have gone back. When my educational bills came on the floor of this House, and it was stated that there was some question about their being sent back to committee, I asked for them to go back and they went back.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker and member of the House, all I want to say is that the entire committee was against this bill and it was let out on the floor of the House simply for two readings and nothing else.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary General for the purpose of further study.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion.

Mr. WAY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am extremely sorry that I have to oppose the motion. This bill as I understand the action of the committee, was sent out with the understanding that the sponsor, Mr. Baker, would ask for its return to the committee. That was my understanding. Mr. Baker did so. I don't believe it is fair to Mr. Baker, a member of this House and the sponsor of this bill to have him criticised on the floor of this House for not defending and sending back that bill and not urging for it. The members of this House, every member of this House had a chance to vote whether that bill would go back or not, whether they would sustain Mr. Baker's motion or not and a majority of the members voted to keep this bill on the calendar. I think Mr. Baker has kept faith with the committee and has done what he is required to do. This bill is an important bill and should be voted for here and not sent back to Committee, I ask the members of the House to vote against the motion to recommit.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Baker and Mr. Laubach, and were as follows:

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1248, entitled:

An Act authorizing the publication of legal and official advertising and notices in Sunday newspapers of general circulation.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. JOHN J. KANE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the sponsor of this bill to tell the purpose of this piece of legislation.

The SPEAKER. Will the sponsor of this bill, Mr. Schwartz, explain the purposes of this bill.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the bill aims to do this. Under the present act, a newspaper cannot accept any legal advertising in a Sunday paper. When a legal notice is supposed to be published, the law reads that it shall be published in three daily insertions. Under this act, it will allow them to also publish in a Sunday newspaper.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. BLUMBERG, from the Committee on Elections, reported as committed, House Bill No. 2293 (Senate Bill No. 1024), entitled:

An Act to provide for a convention to ratify or reject an amendment to the Constitution of the United States proposed by both Houses of Congress for the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment to the said Constitution and for the prohibition of liquors in violation of the laws of states territories or possessions of the United States and to provide for the election of delegates to such convention.

BILL ON FIRST READING

Mr. BLUMBERG asked and obtained unanimous consent to have House Bill No. 2293 (Senate Bill No. 1024), read for the first time.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the first reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2293 (Senate Bill No. 1024), entitled:

An Act to provide for a convention to ratify or reject an amendment to the Constitution of the United States proposed by both Houses of Congress for the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment to the said Constitution and for the prohibition of transportation importation delivery or use of intoxicating liquors in violation of the laws of states territories or possessions of the United States and to provide for the election of delegates to such convention.

And said bill having been read at length the first time,
Ordered, To be laid aside for second reading.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1550, entitled:

A Supplement to the act approved the second day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty (P. L. 538), entitled "An act to authorize the erection of a Poor House by the township of Wilkesbarre in Luzerne county," authorizing the central poor district to create indebtedness.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

NAYS—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmtive.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 93, entitled:

An Act relating to the collection of city, county, school and poor taxes within the territorial limits of cities of the third class, making the city treasurer the collector of taxes therein, defining his duties and powers; providing for the appointment and payment of salaries of assistants and clerks, and imposing the payment of salaries and expenses upon the city, county and school district; changing the powers of and imposing duties upon cities of the third class, counties, school districts and poor districts and the officers thereof, and imposing penalties.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the Bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken.

Mr. LENAHAN. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

MOTION TO POSTPONE

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed on the postponed calendar.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, before that vote is announced I would like to move that another roll call be had.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia state his reasons?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I think there was a great deal of confusion back of the rail.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will rule that the roll as called will be withdrawn and now orders a recalling of the roll.

MOTION TO POSTPONE

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I move that the bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Berks is informed that there is nothing in order but the calling of the roll.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, is it not in order to move that the bill be placed upon the postponed calendar?

The SPEAKER. Not after the order for the roll call.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I move that the Speaker be authorized to withdraw his decision to call the roll.

The SPEAKER. There is nothing in order before the House except the calling of the roll. The Clerk will call the roll.

Mr. HOOPES. I ask unanimous consent to have this bill placed upon the postponed calendar.

The SPEAKER. The order before the House is the calling of the roll, and the request is not in order.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, as I understand the rules is not anything in order by unanimous consent?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I insist upon having put my motion for the calling of a new roll.

The SPEAKER. In answer to the motion of the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, to place this bill upon the postponed calendar, the Chair rules that the bill being on final passage and the order for the roll call having been issued, there is nothing, under the terms of the Constitution, Article III, Section 4, before the House except the calling of the roll, and therefore the motion to place the bill upon the postponed calendar is not in order.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, has the Chair ruled upon my request for unanimous consent to place the bill upon the postponed calendar? That is not a motion.

The SPEAKER. In answer to the query of the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, the Chair informs him that this being a Constitutional question the unanimous consent of the House would not change the Constitutional aspect of the question.

MOTION TO ADJOURN

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I now move that this House do now adjourn until next Monday evening at 9.00 o'clock.

The SPEAKER. In answer to the motion of the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, the gentleman's attention is called to to Rule 16 of this House which reads as follows:

"A motion for adjournment shall always be in order and shall be decided without debate, except that it cannot be received when the House is voting on another question, nor while a member is addressing the House."

Therefore, the Chair rules that the motion is out of order.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I arise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Berks will state his point of order.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, the Clerk not having started to call the roll, we are not voting upon anything, and the motion to adjourn is in order.

The SPEAKER. The Chair has ruled on that motion. The Clerk will call the roll.

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were again taken and were as follows, viz:

THE SPEAKER (GROVER C. TALBOT) IN THE CHAIR

SENATE MESSAGE

RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, April 10, 1933.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That, Whereas, The Public Works Program of the President of the United States for the relief of the unemployed is restricted to public works that are essential to the people of the community, and

Whereas, The Rivers and Harbors Committee of the House of Representatives of the United States and the Army Engineers of the United States have under consideration a project for improving the Beaver and Mahoning Rivers from the junction of the Beaver River with the Ohio River at the Borough of Rochester, northward in Pennsylvania, by making these rivers navigable to barge traffic, and

Whereas, The improvement of the Beaver and Mahoning Rivers would be one of the most useful and outstanding public works that the government could find in any community, and

Whereas, This improvement would make available large quantities of raw material and render more secure the continuation of the industries along said rivers, in which hundreds of thousands of people depend for employment and support, and

Whereas, The improvement of these rivers would furnish substantial employment to thousands of persons residing in the State of Pennsylvania, which are now unemployed,

Therefore, Be it resolved that the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby memorialize and request the Congress of the United States to authorize the immediate improvement of the Beaver and Mahoning Rivers, both for the unemployment relief which would thereby be furnished, and for the permanent continuation of the industries located in Western Pennsylvania, which are dependent upon these rivers being navigable.

Be it further resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted by the Clerk of the Senate to the President of the United States, to both United States Senators and each Member of Congress from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

It was concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

SENATE MESSAGE

RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, January 17, 1933.

Whereas, The three-cent postage has failed to produce the added revenue for the Federal Government predicated by its sponsors, for the principal reason that large corporations and public utilities have found it more economical to deliver monthly bills and materials by messenger; and

Whereas, Small businesses cannot meet this postal increase by the same means and are forced to pay the increase; and

Whereas, Two cent first class postage for the family letter has been one of the strongest ties of the American family, and this increase of fifty per centum (50%) in postage rates inflicts hardships on millions of people; therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That the General Assembly respectfully petitions Congress of the United States to repeal the law providing for three cent first class postage and that the rate be restored to two cents as heretofore;

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Senate shall send a copy of this resolution to the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives of the United States, and to each Senator and Representatives from Pennsylvania in Congress of the United States.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

It was concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

Session 1933 — 130th of the General Assembly

Vol. 15 — HARRISBURG, PA., MONDAY, APRIL 17, 1933. — No. 49

SENATE

MONDAY, April 17, 1933

The Senate met at 9 o'clock P. M.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Edward C. Shannon) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. George P. Donehoo, offered the following prayer:

Our Gracious Heavenly Father, Thou hast taught us in Thy Word as well as by experience to always abound in joy in the gifts of God, and Thou has also taught us not only in Thy Word but also in our own experience to lay these gifts aside as we took them up in order that we may realize that we are, like Abraham of old, but pilgrims and strangers here, and that we are looking for a city that hath foundation, whose builder and maker is God. Therefore help us to know by experience that we are never to have a perfect city or a perfect Commonwealth or a perfect government here. Bless us all tonight, and keep us in Thy fear and Thy love. In Jesus Christ. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present, the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. CHAPMAN, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

PETITIONS

FAVORING SENATE BILL No. 758

The Chair cleared his table and laid before the Senate petitions from

The Highway Freedom Association, of Mount Joy.
Citizens of Verona, Allegheny County.

favoring Senate Bill No. 758.

Which were referred to the Committee on Judiciary General.

Mr. SONES presented petition from various citizens throughout Sullivan County favoring Senate Bill No. 758.

Which was referred to the Committee on Judiciary General.

MEMORIALIZING CONGRESS TO ENACT LEGISLATION TO PROTECT ALL MONEY DEPOSITED IN NATIONAL AND STATE BANKS

The Chair cleared his table and laid before the Senate resolution of the General Assembly of the State of Michigan which was read as follows:

STATE OF MICHIGAN, 57th LEGISLATURE, REGULAR SESSION OF 1933

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 10.

A concurrent resolution urging the United States Congress to reflate the dollar.

Whereas, The debts of individuals, corporations and governmental units are a staggering sum and it is absolutely impossible to have them liquidated with the present unit of value of all commodities, including labor, and

Whereas, A very high percentage of these debts were contracted at a time when this unit of value, the dollar, was very much less in its purchasing power and a great many times easier to acquire, and

Whereas, The inability of our people to acquire these units of value for personal service and sale of commodities has brought about unemployment, the lowest wage on the average and the lowest prices of commodities in many cases in the history of our country, thus causing dire distress in every state in our Union, and

Whereas, Unrest and discouragement over loss of homes, fortunes and factories is beginning to show itself in strikes, riots, boycotts and even radical moves in State Legislatures, and

Whereas, Inflation of the currency in France since the World War and in Great Britain recently has brought about increase in business, and

Whereas, Economic conditions in the United States have reached a point where there is need of Federal protection of bank deposits and equality in bearing the burden of taxation on the basis of ability to pay the same, therefore be it

Resolved, By the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That the Congress of the United States reclaim its function under the Constitution, namely, "to coin money and regulate the value thereof," and be it further

Resolved, That currency be issued in payment of United States bonds that are already outstanding and currency issued instead of United States bonds whenever necessary, because of deficiencies in governmental income until the price of wheat, which is a wonderful standard of values and always has been, reaches the cash price of ninety cents per bushel on the Chicago market, or until the index of all commodities, including labor, reaches the point where it has been in the past thirty-five years when wheat was selling at about ninety cents per bushel cash in the Chicago market, and be it further

Resolved, That the Congress is hereby requested to pass legislation that will insure and protect at all times the money deposited in any and all National and State banks, in order that more money may be put into circulation and without any danger of losing such money when so deposited; and that will put all money now invested or hereafter to be invested in Federal, State, municipal and all district bonds and securities subject to taxation for all purposes on the basis of equality with property taxes; and be it further

Rsolved, That a suitable copy of this resolution be sent to the President of the United States, to the Congress of the United States, to the Michigan members in the House and Senate of the Congress and to the Clerk of the House and Secretary of the Senate of the various Legislatures in the United States.

Adopted, by House of Representatives, April 7, 1933.
Adopted, by Senate, April 11, 1933.

DEWITT CAUFIELD,
Secretary of the Senate.
MYLES F. GRAY,
Clerk of the House of Representatives.

The PRESIDENT. Members of the Senate, the Chair has the honor and pleasure of presenting His Excellency the Governor of the Commonwealth, the Honorable Gifford Pinchot.

ADDRESS OF GOVERNOR PINCHOT

Members of the Senate: The public utility question was the foremost question before the General Assembly of 1931. The House conducted an extensive and highly valuable investigation on the subject and passed by a great majority an excellent bill.

The Senate recognized the importance of the utility question by the appointment of two investigating committees. The first Senate commitee devoted its time and energy to putting on record adroit evidence from utility officers and alleged proof from pro-utility professors and advocates, all of which was accepted by the Senate Committee to the effect that all charges against utilities were false.

The second Senate Investigating Committee which was reorganized in September, 1932, made public very significant material put into its hands by the Attorney General, and certain bills were prepared under its auspices which it declined to endorse. Otherwise it accomplished exactly nothing.

It accomplished nothing because it intended to accomplish nothing. Whether the present Investigating Committee will do better remains to be seen. I have promised it my cooperation on condition that it will spare neither companies nor persons —that it will come clean and go through in an honest effort to put the facts before the people.

If it makes good on that promise, I shall assist it to the limit of my power. If it follows in the path of dawdling, donothing, and delay traced by its predecessor, I shall wash my hands of it entirely.

The needless difficulties put in the way of getting relief for the unemployed and their families made it impossible for me to bring this matter more promptly to your notice because most of my attention had to be given to unemployment questions. For the last month the fight to guard two million Pennsylvanians against starvation has left me little or no time for anything else. I do not see that I could have done otherwise than give it first place.

The rates and charges of public utilities to all intents and purposes are taxes, because the power of the public utilities to make rates and charges is, in effect, the power to tax.

To make utility regulation effective in Pennsylvania three things are required:

1. The provisions of our Public Service Commission law must be broadened and strengthened.

2. The investigation and disclosure of relations between utilities and members of the Public Service Commission must be carried through to a finish.

3. The people must be guaranteed a Public Service Commission whose members are alive to their interests, sympathetic to their problems, and zealous in their behalf.

The Public Service Company Law was written at a time when holding companies, interlocking directorates, double sets of bookkeeping, pyramiding of security issues, and other complicated financial and legal devices to fool the people were either unpracticed or unknown. We cannot look for completely effective rate regulation in Pennsylvania under any Commission until we provide up-to-date law for the Commission to work under.

The Commission must be given effective control over relations with holding companies. Such control could have prevented the Insull crash.

The Public Service Commission must be given direct and complete supervision of the issuance of utility securities.

Utilities must be prevented from increasing their rates until and unless such increase has first been approved by the Commission.

In addition the law should be so changed that utility customers who have been overcharged can get their money back promptly and easily.

We can never have effective utility regulations in Pennsylvania, and we never will have, until our antiquated Public Service Commission Law is strengthened at least in the ways I have indicated.

It is clear that unless we have regulation that really regulates, the people will rise up and demand public ownership of utilities.

There is no longer any doubt as to the existence of a unified electric power trust. The Federal Power Commission's investigations, revelations in Pennsylvania, and disclosures follow ing the collapse of the Insull monopolies have completely borne out my prophecies of twenty-five years ago. Eight years ago I said:

"Either we must control electric power, or its masters and owners will control us."

What was laughed at twenty-five years ago, or even eight years ago, is laughed at no longer.

I cannot here discuss at length the methods employed by utilities for gouging the public. I pass over the perversion of students' textbooks and the subsidizing of professors. But I cannot pass over the write-up.

The Federal Trade Commission's records show that in one reorganization the investments of the Electric Bond and Share Company were written up $400,000,000, and that the American Power and Light Company inflated the value of six subsidiaries by $68,000,000, or 124 per cent. The American Gas and Electric Company inflated the assets of the Scranton Electric Company by more than $4,000,000. It was to such write-ups as these and to pyramiding securities that the collapse of Mr. Insull's watered empire was directly due.

Just before the depression electric utility write-ups in Pennsylvania alone enabled the electric companies to overcharge consumers by $30,000,000 a year.

There will be introduced tonight an Administration Public Utility Bill.

A comparison between the McClure Bill (Senate Bill No. 413) and the Administration Public Utility Bill shows:

The Administration bill gives the Commission control over affiliated interests, and powers to see that contracts between utilities and affiliated interests for the purchase of electric current, gas, water and so on, represent a square business deal.

The McClure Bill does not, and yet these are the types of contract that require supervision above all others.

The Administration Bill gives fullest and completest power possible under interstate conditions to the Commission over holding and affiliated interest relationships, and provides for exhaustive investigation into proposed contracts with them, including those for furnishing managerial, supervisory, engineering, accounting, legal, financial, or other similar services.

The McClure bill does not.

The Administration bill provides that no increase in rates by any utility shall go into effect until approved by the Commission. It puts the burden of proof squarely upon the uitilty to satisfy the Commission that rate increases are just before they con go into effect. This is precisely what the people want and are determined to have, and what they ought to have.

The McClure bill does not so provide.

The Administration bill limits charters and franchises to fifty years, and thereby prevents any utility from getting an unbreakable hold upon the public, like that of the underliers in the Philadelphia trolley fiasco.

The McClure bill does not.

The Administration bill gives the Commission full power to protect the public by forbidding the issuance of securities by utilities, without the prior approval of the Commission after it has fully satisfied itself that the issues will work for the good of the consumers and patrons of the uitility, and of the public as a whole.

Under the McClure bill the Commission would be required to approve an issue of securities, if it were for any one of numerous specified purposes, and it exempts all securities issued for a period of less than twelve months. The McClure bill gives the Commission little power to protect the public against watered stock.

The Administration bill provides that only just and fair amounts of property, money, or labor may be received in exchange for securities.

The McClure bill does not.

The Administration bill requires the Commission to give preference to municipal or district owned utilities in granting or transferring operation rights and in the acquisition of utilities themselves.

The McClure bill does not.

The Administration bill requires utilities to set up all net profits beyond a fair return each year in "Excess Earnings" reserves to balance one year's shortage against another year's surplus. The result will be that utilities will have no incentive to charge rates beyond those in excess of a fair return for services rendered.

The McClure bill contains no such provision.

The Administration bill requires all utilities to establish such depreciation accounts as the Commission may require, and provides for the disposition of funds in any depreciation reserve.

The McClure bill provisions on this subject are vague and unsatisfactory.

The Administration bill protects the consumer and facilitates the work of the Commission by simplifying refunds and reparations for overcharges.

The McClure bill does not.

The Administration bill requires each Commissioner to devote his entire time to the duties of his office.

The McClure bill does not.

It is clear as crystal, therefore, which bill is in the interest of the public and which is not.

In the last year a complete change has come over the Public Service Commisison. It was the cat's-paw of the public utilities. It is so no longer. It has now, by my appointment, a majority of its members fully committed to serve the public interest instead.

The resignation of Commissioner James S. Benn under fire, the resignation of W. D. B. Ainey under fire, the resignation of Commissioner Collins at my demand, and the expiration of the terms of Commissioner Brown and Commissioner Young gave me the appointment of five members of the Commission—of whom Judge Woodruff and Frederick Gruenberg were appointed in 1931.

No one in Pennsylvania is so well fitted by long training and wide experience, no one is better fitted by character and devotion to the public interest to serve on the Public Service Commission than Judge Woodruff. Yet no action was taken upon his name at the session of 1931.

Commissioner Gruenberg is well known to possess unusual preparation and qualifications for his work. Nevertheless his name was similarly passed over.

In 1932 I appointed P. S. Stahlnecker, Clyde L. King, and C. J. Goodnough to the Commission.

Commissioner Stahlnecker has had intimate contact with public utility questions for nearly a quarter of a century. No one has ventured to question his capacity or his fitness. He is qualified to meet the public utilities on any ground. I regard his appointment as ideal.

The same is true of Commissioner Goodnough, whose unrivaled acquaintance with the needs and desires of the people of Pennsylvania, remarkable legislative experience, and unexcelled fairness and poise, fit him to the highest degree for his task.

Here are four men (Woodruff, Gruenberg, Stahlnecker and Goodnough) whose loyalty to the interests of the people no one questions—four men whose qualifications for the posts they occupy are beyond dispute—four men whose confirmation, beyond all cavil or question, would be in the interest of the people. Yet the organization leaders of the Senate of Pennsylvania show every sign of intending to pickle their nominations.

Commissioners Woodruff, Gruenberg, Stahlnecker, and Goodnough are able, honest, sound, and loyal to the people. They deserve to be confirmed. In the public interest there is every reason why they should be confirmed, and no reason against it.

You cannot properly refuse to act upon these four names. In the name of the people I demand that action shall be taken at this session to confirm them.

The best of all tests of their fitness is what has been done by my appointees. Among the more important accomplishments are these:

1. Institution of a system of informal conferences with utility companies in order to secure rate reductions without the tremendous expense and delay of rate litigation. The reductions already brought about in this manner in less than ten months are worth to utility consumers some three and a half millions of dollars a year, with more and greater reductions in the next two years if the Commission is allowed the necessary funds.

2. A determined effort to secure the revision of freight rates on Pennsylvania coal in order to rehabilitate one of the State's greatest industries.

3. An investigation into the actual cost of distributing electricity in order to make certain that rates shall not be based on inflated costs.

4. A study of the spreads in charges per kilowatt hour to different classes of consumers and for different blocks of consumption in order to eliminate the grave injustice, chiefly to householders, which many of these spreads represent.

5. A thorough study of rural electrification as a means of getting justice for the farmer.

6. A study of telephone depreciation rates in cooperation with the New York and New Jersey Commissions looking to a reduction in rates.

7. An investigation into the legitimate costs of the Conowingo project as affecting rates in the eastern half of Pennsylvania.

8. An effort to fix the actual legitimate investment in the Safe Harbor project as affecting rates to Pennsylvania consumers.

9. Above all, the new Commission has begun to act on its own motion in defense of the people. It has instituted a flexible and vigorous administrative service designed to secure justice both to consumers and to utility companies with the least possible red tape, cost, and delay.

At last the Public Service Commission has become the militant defender of the people's rights.

The four men I recommend are fit. They have proved it by their works. They have served the people honestly and well. On any basis of fitness and merit they deserve to be confirmed.

There never was a clearer issue. As you decide it, so will you be judged by the men and women of this Commonwealth whose interest you will betray if you fail to act, and act favorably, upon these four nominations.

To refuse to act upon their names can have but one purpose, namely, to wait in the hope that a Governor less favorable to the interests of the people, and more favorable to the organization and to the public utilities, shall be elected next time.

The plan is to refuse confirmation to these men who are faithful to the people in the hope and expectation of rejecting them at a time when a pro-organization and pro-utility Governor could be counted on to put organization and pro-utility men in their places. There is and there can be no other purpose in this delay.

Such a delay for such a purpose is utterly unfair to the men of ability, character, and standing whom I have nominated to fill these important posts.

What is more, it is utterly unfair to the people of Pennsylvania, who have the right to be represented on the Commission by men whose first interest is in protecting the people of Pennsylvania.

It is equally unfair to every member of the Senate who genuinely desires to safeguard the interests of his constituents. No such Senator can in fairness be deprived of his chance to vote upon this question.

I speak the mind of the people of this Commonwealth when I say that the political plot which is represented by this delay is wholly disreputable and without excuse.

I wonder how far the political leaders who are guilty of this plot against the public interest think they can go without stirring up justified resentment enough to blast them out of public life?

It is with the deepest and most genuine regret that I come now to discuss the present chairman of the Commission, a man with whom I worked in the closest co-operation for many years, whom I had seen service the public faithfully and well, and for whom I had come to have the greatest admiration and respect.

When I appointed Doctor King, I believed, and had reason to believe, that his qualifications were pre-eminent. He has since, by a sudden and unaccountable change of front, destroyed public confidence in himself as chairman of the commission.

I am wholly unable to explain this reversal, or accustom myself to the thought of it. It is one of the great dissapointments of my life.

After Doctor King had made his change of front and had thereby made himself unfit for his present post, I asked the Senate to return his nomination to me. I have not received even the courtesy of a reply.

No matter what the organization leaders of the Senate may think of me personally (and in that I have neither interest nor concern), it is their obvious duty to treat the Governor of this great Commonwealth with the respect which is his due as the representative of the people. And when the Governor makes a proper request—a request made by every Governor and granted to every Governor as a matter of course—the habits of courtesy among civilized men require at least an answer.

Tonight I ask again that Doctor King's nomination be returned to me in order that I may substitute for it the nomination of a man of whose devotion to the public interest there can be no question.

I repeat once more, and still more strongly, my demands that the other four Commissioners whose names are before you be acted upon without further delay.

Already the men I have appointed to the Commission have abundantly justified their choice. I have already described some of their achievements. Yet in the face of this record, with full knowledge of the need of the people for added protection against the gouging charges of public utilities and in the face of an increase of $250,000 recommended in my budget over their present appropriation in order to meet the need, the organization leaders in the House have deliberately reduced the appropriation for the Public Service Commission in the General Appropriation bill not only by $386,000 below my recommendation, but by $136,000 below what the Commission has now.

This is notice to every consumer of electricity in Pennsylvania that these leaders propose to cripple the Commission in its efforts to secure reductions in rates, and that they are in favor of leaving those rates where they are now.

The Commission asks for an increase for one purpose only—to pay the cost of getting rates reduced. It is sure that every dollar of increased appropriation will be worth at least $20 to utility rate payers in reduced rates.

The organization leaders of Pennsylvania have for years been taking orders from and working for the great utilities, the great bankers, and the great corporatoins against the interest of the plain people of Pennsylvania. I do not have to prove that statement. Every man in the street knows it to be true.

Evidently those leaders still believe, in spite of all the signs of the times, that they can continue to sacrifice the public interest for the sake of jobs. But I question whether the people of this Commonwealth, in whose hands is the power, are prepared to sit quiet and see their closest interest neglected for factional political advantage, and their most vital concerns sacrifice to the advantage of concentrated wealth.

BILLS INTRODUCED

Section 209 Elections When any petition is confirmed absolutely the court shall order an election held on the question of the creation division or consolidation of such township or townships which shall be held on the day of the next general or municipal election occurring at least sixty days after such order of court Such election shall be held at the regular polling places in the township or townships affected as the case may be At any such election all of the qualified electors of the township or townships affected by such creation division or consolidation shall have the right to vote The ballot at any such election shall be furnished by the county commissioners and the question to be placed thereon shall be framed and printed on the ballots as provided by the election laws of the Commonwealth

Section 210 Notice of Election The constable of the township or townships affected as the case may be or if there be no constable then one of the supervisors designated by the court shall give at least fifteen days' notice of the time and place of holding such election by posting not less than six printed handbills in at least six public places in each of such townships The notice of election shall contain a statement of the township or townships to be affected thereby whether it is proposed to make a division or a consolidation or create a new township and the court may prescribe the form of the notice and include therein such other matters as the circumstances of the individual case may render desirable

Section 211 Return of Election Decree The election officers after the polls have been closed shall count the ballots and certify the number of votes cast for and against such creation division or consolidation to the clerk of the court of quarter sessions who shall tabulate and compute the same and lay the result before the court If it shall appear that a majority of the votes cast in such township or in each of the townships affected are in favor of the creation of a new township or the division of a township or the consolidation of two or more townships as the case may be the court shall order and decree the new township agreeably to the name and lines set forth in the petition and the government of the new township shall be organized and become effective on the first Monday of January succeeding such election If a majority of the votes cast in any such township or in any of the townships affected are against the creation division or consolidation of such township or townships no further action shall be had upon said proceedings No new proceeding shall be considered for a period of two years

Section 212 Boundary Monuments All angles and corners in the lines of any such new township not fixed by public highways natural boundaries or monuments shall be marked by stone monuments placed at such angles or corners unless it is impractical to do so in which case the court shall direct how the same shall be marked and for cause shown the court may direct other monuments to be placed on said lines The cost of such monuments and the placing thereof shall be paid by the new township and it shall be the duty of the supervisors thereof to cause said monuments to be put in place not later than one year after the new township is formed

Section 213 Classification of Old and New Townships The parts of a township remaining after the division of a township or the parts remaining of townships out of which parts have been taken for the creation of a new township shall remain townships of the second class The new township created shall also be a township of the second class unless and until by subsequent proceedings in accordance with laws relating to townships of the first class and having the required population it shall be created a township of the first class

Section 214 Costs When a new township is created as hereinbefore provided the cost of the proceedings shall be paid by the new township and where any petition is dismissed or a majority of the electors of any one or more townships shall vote against the creation division or consolidation of any such township the cost of the proceedings shall be paid by the petitioners

Section 215 Property Rights and Liabilities where Townships Consolidated After the consolidation of two or more townships the rights privileges and franchises of each of the townships and all property real personal and mixed and all debts due on whatever account and other things in action belonging to each of such townships shall be vested in the new township The title to real estate vested in either of such townships shall not revert or be in any way impaired by reason of such consolidation All rights of creditors or liens shall be preserved and all debts and liabilities of either of such townships shall attach to such new township and be in force against it

Section 216 Adjustment of Indebtedness when Township Created or Divided (a) Where any township is created out of parts of two or more townships or where a township is divided the supervisors of the new township and of the existing township or townships affected shall make a just and proper adjustment and apportionment of all property both real and personal including funds and taxes as well as indebtedness if any to and between the new township and the old township or townships In making such adjustment and apportionment of the property and indebtedness the new and the old township or townships shall be entitled respectively to share in a division of the property indebtedness funds and taxes in proportion that the assessed valuation of the land or lands remaining in the township or townships bears to the assessed valuation of the lands in the new township taken from such township or townships The adjustment and apportionment if made shall be reduced to writing and duly executed and acknowledged by the supervisors of the townships affected and shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the court of quarter sessions of the county

(b) In case the supervisors of such townships cannot make such amicable apportionment and adjustment of real property and indebtedness within six months after the election for the creation of such townships then any one or more supervisors of any of the townships affected may present a petition to the court of quarter sessions of the county setting forth the facts. Whereupon the court shall appoint three disinterested commissioners taxables of the county but not residing in any of the townships affected who shall give due notice to the supervisors of all of the townships affected and shall hold hearings and make a report to the court making an apportionment and adjustment of all the property funds and taxes as well as indebtedness to and between the new township and the existing township stating the amount of indebtedness that shall be assumed by the new township and the existing township or townships

(c) The commissioners shall give at least five days' notice of the filing of their report to the supervisors of the townships interested Unless exceptions are filed thereto within thirty days by any township the same shall be confirmed by the court absolutely

(d) Any sum awarded by the report to a township shall be a legal and valid claim in its favor against the other townships charged therewith Any property real or personal given and adjudged to any township shall be the property of the township to which it is given and adjudged

(e) The commissioners shall be allowed ten dollars for each day actually spent by them in the performance of their duties, together with their actual necessary expenses All costs and expenses of such petitioning shall be apportioned by the court to and between the townships affected as it shall deem proper

(f) In case exceptions are filed to the report of such commissioners the court shall dispose of the same taking testimony if deemed advisable and the decision of the court thereon shall be final and binding on the townships unless an appeal is taken within thirty days to the Superior or Supreme Court as in other cases

(c) Reestablishment of Townships of the Second Class

Section 225 Because of Loss of Population Townships of the first class no longer having a population of three hundred to the square mile may be reestablished as townships of the second class in the manner provided by laws governing townships of the first class

Section 226 By Vote of Qualified Electors A township of the first class may irrespective of population be reestablished a township of the second class in the manner hereinafter provided

The board of commissioners of such township on its own initiative may or within fifteen days after the receipt of a petition signed by at least twenty-five per centum of the qualified electors of such township shall pass a resolution and record it on its minutes submitting the question of whether such township of the first class shall be reestablished a township of the second class to the qualified electors of such township

At the general or municipal election occurring at least ninety days after the passage of such resolution the question whether such township of the first class shall be reestablished a township of the second class shall be submitted to the voters of the township and the county commissioners shall cause to be printed on separate ballots to be used in such township at such election a proper question framed in accordance with the election laws of the Commonwealth

The election officers shall compute the votes cast at the election and make return thereof to the clerk of the court of quarter sessions of the county wherein such township is situate who shall compute the same and certify the result thereof to the county commissioners and the board of township commissioners of such township If a majority of the votes cast at any such election shall be in favor of the reestablishment of such township as a township of the second class the government of the township of the second class shall be organized and become effective on the first Monday of January next succeeding such election at which time the terms of the officers of the township of the first class shall cease and terminate and the officers appointed by the court for such township as hereinafter provided shall take office If a majority of the votes cast at any such election shall be in favor of remaining a township of the first class no further proceeding shall be had for a period of two years after which proceedings de novo may be had

(d) Officers for New Townships

Section 235 Whenever a new township is created out of parts of two or more townships or by the division of a township or by the consolidation of townships or as the result of the annulment of the charter of a borough or when a township is reestablished the court of quarter sessions shall appoint the elective officers for the new township and fix the polling place or places in such new township The officers so appointed shall hold their offices until the first Monday of January following the next municipal election occurring at least ninety days after such appointments At such municipal election an assessor and a tax collector shall be elected for regular four-year terms if such election occurs in the year when such officers are elected for regular terms and if not then such officers shall be elected for terms of two years each and their successors shall be elected for four-year terms At said first municipal election one supervisor and one auditor shall be elected for terms of six years each one supervisor and one auditor for terms of four years each and one supervisor and one auditor for terms of two years each All such officers shall take office on the first Monday of January next following their election

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 446, entitled:

An Act relating to the business of banking, and to the exercise of fiduciary powers by corporations; providing for the organization of banking corporations, with or without fiduciary powers, including the conversation of national banks into State banks, and for the licensing of private bankers; defining the rights, powers, duties, liabilities, and immunities of such corporations, of existent corporations authorized to engage in a banking business, with or without fiduciary powers, of private bankers, and of the officers, directors, trustees, shareholders, attorneys, and other employes of all such corporations or private bankers, or of affiliated corporations, associations, or persons; restricting the exercise of banking powers by any other corporation, association, or person, and of fiduciary powers by any other corporation; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the courts, prothonotaries, recorders of deeds, and certain State departments, commissions, and officers; imposing penalties; and repealing certain acts and parts of acts.

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I have a gentleman's agreement with the Chairman of the Committee on Banks and Building and Loan Associations to offer amendments to this bill. I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments.

The amendments were read for the information of the Senate.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I have no objection to Senator Woodward's offering these amendments, but I would like to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, with pleasure.

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, has the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, read the bill?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I have read the parts of the bill in which I am interested.

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, told me this afternoon that he had not read the bill.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, that is true, but I have read it since.

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, the Committee on Banks and Building and Loan Associations of the Senate of Pennsylvania, together with the Department of Banking.—Dr. Gordon and his assistants, and the Attorney General, and a number of the bankers throughout the State, agreed on practically every provision in this bill. I hope that there will be no further amendments to it; and I will request the members of the Senate to vote "no" on these amendments.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I would like to have the opportunity to say a few words. There are two amendments, and this is the first opportunity I have had to offer these amendments, because they were in the bill before but at the hearing with the bankers these two items were taken out of the code. The items are, first, with regard to the divorcing of affiliates from the banks, and, second, on the regulation of private banks. I will be as brief as I can.

Last week, in Congress, Senator David A. Reed offered a eulogy, which was printed in the Congressional Record, on Eugene Meyer, who had been, as you know, for three administrations, financial advisor to the President, and Mr. Hoover made him head of the Federal Reserve Board, and as such he became the first chairman of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

As far back as 1923 Mr. Meyer described the banking situation as a "competition in laxity." And the article from the Baltimore Sun of April 13, 1933, from which Senator Reed was quoting, goes on to say: "It could hardly have been better described. The competition among the banks to get deposits was like the competition among some States to get corporations to locate in them. All sorts of inducements were offered—exemptions from taxes, subsidies in one form or another, the keys to the city. Banks have proceeded along the same lines—higher interest rates than their rivals, more conveniences, bigger buildings, greater facilities, etc. It has been a race, and, to a lot of banks—and, much more important, a lot of depositors—a ruinous one. It compelled banks to assume too many functions, to go into side lines, to become too 'progressive'."

He then expressed his opinion that banking institutions are not private but are semi-public, and therefore should be regulated.

Now, in the Financial Chronicle of March 11, 1933, appears: "Both the National City Bank and the Chase National Bank of New York have announced their purpose of divorcing their banks from their respective security affiliates. In the case of the National City Bank the announcement simply took the form of a statement issued on Tuesday night by James H. Perkins, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Bank, saying that the Board of the National City Bank and of the National City Company had determined on that day on the policy of working toward the divorcement of the Bank and its security affiliate."

This is the bank, you will remember, that Charles E. Mitchell was the head of, until he was fired and Mr. Perkins put in his place. In the Chase National Bank Mr. Aldrich, Chairman of the Board, drew up various statements. I will read two of them. Number one: "No corporation or partnership should be permitted to take deposits unless such corporation or partnership is subjected to the same regulations and required to publish the same statements as are commercial banks." Number two: "No corporation or partnership dealing in securities should be permitted to take deposits even under regulation."

I have a letter from a banker in Philadelphia, who asked me not to reveal his name, which reads as follows: "The affiliates should be divorced from the banks, as it is the banks' money that supports the affiliates. The affiliate uses the depositors' money for speculative purposes, not permitted to be done directly. The affiliates know the amount of the depositors' accounts, and are consequently in a position of advantage over other investment houses. Private banks should be subject to the same supervision as other banks."

This is from a letter from the National City Bank of New York, and it simply states that the National City Bank has determined to divorce its affiliate; and the same with regard to the Chase National Bank.

As I understand, the Bankers Trust Company and the Franklin Trust Company, in Philadelphia, came to grief through their affiliates; and we are told that the Banking Code was to be one of the particular pieces of legislation at this session, and my understanding was that two of the very important items were these items to separate the affiliates from the commercial banks and prevent the depositors' money from being used for speculative purposes, and, secondly, to subject the private banks to the same treatment as any other banks.

I think the question of affiliates requires very little argument, but when it comes to the private banks there can be a great deal said on both sides. I simply wish to speak of two points: That banking, like insurance, is not a private business; that we regulate insurance, and we therefore ought to regulate banks. In the second place, the political argument that the House of Morgan is the symbol of great wealth in this country in the hated Wall Street. Whether that is ignorance and prejudice or not, it is a fact that the House of Morgan is the target at which many of the discontented people of this country are shooting.

I therefore submit that, if there were no other reason, the Senate ought to insist on restoring this item on the inspection of private banks for this reason: That we ought not only to stand up straight but should even lean backward in this matter, so that we cannot be accused of extending special privilege to private bankers. If they have nothing to be ashamed of, they ought to be the first to ask that their banks be open to the bank examiner.

I hope, therefore, that the Senate will vote "aye" and restore to the code these two items, which were originally in it, but, owing to the hearing at which the bankers and their lawyers appeared, were taken out.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, yes, sir.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I merely desire to ask the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, one question: Do the amendments presented by him provide that the Department of Banking will have the same supervision over the private banks as it has over the State banks?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, yes, sir.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, do these, then, restore to the banking code the original idea of supervision by the State Banking Department over private banks?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, they do.

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I will have to object to the amendments.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection to the amendments.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, is there objection made?

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I move, therefore, upon the advice of my friend across the aisle (indicating Senator Buckman), I will move that we go into Committee of the Whole Senate, for the purpose of considering these amendments.

The PRESIDENT. General or special?

Mr. WOODWARD. Special amendments.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion, and ask that the amendments be read.

On the question,

Will the Senate resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole?

Agreed to.

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I move that the Senate resolve itself into Committee of the Whole, for the purpose of general amendment.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Whereupon,

The Senate resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole, Mr. SORDONI in the Chair, on said bill.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. Chairman, I move to amend section 521, pages 78 and 79 by striking out all words in said section on lines 27, 28 and 29 and lines 1, 2, 3 and 4 on page 79.

On the question,

Will the Committee agree to the amendment?

A division being called for, fifteen Senators voted in the affirmative and twenty-seven in the negative.

Whereupon the question was decided in the negative.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. Chairman, as the amendments are so interwoven and noting the temper of the Senate to vote them all down, I withdraw the amendments.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee of the Whole rise and that the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole be instructed to report the bill back to the Senate as committed.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. Chairman, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Edward C. Shannon) in the Chair.

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, the Committee of the Whole having under consideration Senate Bill No. 446, presents as its report said bill as committed.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the report?

It was agreed to.

HOUSE MESSAGES

DISTRIBUTION OF FOOD AND RELIEF, THROUGH A COMMISSARY RELIEF BOARD, TO BE ABOLISHED.

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read as follows and referred to the Committee on Appropriations.

In the House of Representatives, January 16, 1933.

Whereas, The Act of Assembly approved the nineteenth day of August one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two and known as the Second Talbot Act provided for direct relief in the total sum of Twelve Million Dollars, and

Whereas, The amount provided for direct relief is available for expenditure through the State Emergency Relief Board under such rules and regulations as the board shall adopt, and

Whereas, In certain instances namely in the City of York the State Emergency Relief Board is distributing said direct relief by the institution of a commissary, and

Whereas, Such distribution of food and relief through a commissary is un-American and un-democratic degrading to the unfortunate recipient pyschologically incorrect and occasions the congregation of unfortunates with the possibility of serious social disorder, Now Therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), That it is the intent and desire of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania that the distribution of food and relief through a commissary established by the State Emergency Relief Board shall be discontinued.

JOINT COMMITTEE TO MAKE AN INVESTIGATION OF LOW-COST-TYPE HIGHWAYS.

The SPEAKER (Grover C. Talbot) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. George F. Conner, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, we reverently seek Thy blessing upon the General Assembly as it now convenes.

We humbly pray that Thy Holy Spirit may sustain with wisdom and power from on high, His Excellency, the Governor, the Honorable gentlemen who preside over the Senate and House, the Senators, the Representatives, the officers and employes of this Legislature.

Amid the clamorousness and urgency of these days, overshadow with Thy Divine presence, these ladies and gentlemen, that they may measure up grandly to every demand made upon their intellect, their conscience and their strength.

Grant, O God, that the hours of unrelenting toil gladly given by the conscientious members of the House, may be crowned with good success; that law and order, justice and peace may everywhere prevail throughout our beloved Commonwealth. Amen.

RESOLUTIONS

MEMORIALIZING CONGRESS TO IMPROVE ALLEGHENY RIVER AND FRENCH CREEK

Mr. McKINNEY offered the following resolution which was twice read and laid over under the rules.

In the House of Representatives, April 17, 1933.

Whereas, The Public Works Program of the President of the United States for the relief of the unemployed is restricted to public works that are economically justified and beneficial to the people of the Nation, and

Whereas, The Rivers and Harbors Committee of the House of Representatives of the United States and the Army Engineers of the United States have under consideration a project for the improvement of the Allegheny River from the present authorized project at East Brady to the New York State Line and French Creek from Franklin, Pennsylvania, to a point at Erie, Pennsylvania, for the purpose of making these waterways navigable for canal purposes to connect the Inland Waterways of the United States and the Great Lakes with the New York State Barge Canal for barge traffic and as a contributing measure toward flood control, and

Whereas, The improvement of the Allegheny River and French Creek to connect the Inland Waterways System of the United States and the Inter-Coastal Canal System with the Great Lakes and New York State Barge Canal would make for the greatest social and economic advancement in a public development that our government could possibly conceive and execute for relief of unemployment, and

Whereas, This improvement would make available for shipping millions of tons of raw material; coal, oil and steel, and give one of the oldest industrial sections of Pennsylvania, New York State, Ohio and the New England States an opportunity to protect and rehabilitate its industrial life and afford this highly developed industrial area of Northeastern United States that diversification of distribution so necessary in this highly competitive transportation system of today; provide and secure employment for thousands of people in this area who are established and dependent upon this section of the Nation for support, and

Whereas, The Allegheny River and French Creek and other tributaries of the Allegheny River contribute five-sixth of the water to the Ohio River and is responsible for the terrific devastating and damaging floods in the Ohio and Mississippi Valleys which has caused millions of dollars in property loss and life and this Allegheny River should be controlled, thereby benefiting the entire Nation and developing a navigation project for the benefit of the industrial life, and

Whereas, The Federal Government's prime object in its reforestration program is to preserve the navigability of navigable waterways this project harmonizes with the Federal Government's program as this waterway traverses the area of the Allegheny National Forest, and

Whereas, The improvement of these rivers would furnish substantial employment to thousands of people residing in the State of Pennsylvania who are now unemployed; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby memorialize and urge the consideration of the Congress of the United States to avail itself of the opportunity of developing this great natural waterway by authorizing the immediate improvement of the Allegheny River and French Creek for canal purposes to connect the Inland Waterways of the United States with the Great Lakes and the New York State Barge Canal, both for the relief of the unemployed and for the further protection and rehabilitation of the industries and natural resources located in Pennsylvania and New York States, the future of which is dependent upon these waterways being made navigable.

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted by the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives to the President of the United States, to both United States Senators, and to each member of Congress from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

PENNSYLVANIA VETERANS GIVEN PREFERENCE IN STATE EMPLOYMENT

Mr. FITZGERALD offered the following resolution which was twice read and laid over for printing.

In the House of Representatives, April 17, 1933.

Whereas, The National Government, through the promulgation of an executive order to bring about economies, lessened benefits to veterans of all wars by some four hundred million dollars ($400,000,000), and

Whereas, This executive order will directly affect some fifty thousand World War and some thirty-five thousand Civil and Spanish War veterans residing in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and

Whereas, By the closest estimates the veterans of all wars resident within the confines of Pennsylvania will have their pensions of thirty-five million dollars ($35,000,000), which they now receive yearly, cut to less than twenty million dollars ($20,000,000) and that many will be forced at the beginning of the government's new fiscal year to seek public aid for food, clothing, rent and fuel as a result, now therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That on June 1, 1933, and thereafter so long as the present economic emergency shall exist, all new employees and appointees in the service of the Commonwealth shall be, all other things being equal, honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines who had service in the war with Spain, the Philippine Insurrection, the Boxer Rebellion and the World War, and the State officers authorized to employ persons are hereby directed to give preference to honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines of the above mentioned wars and insurrections who are native born Pennsylvanians, or resident in this State one year or more, and who had service with the Pennsylvania troops. State employment bureaus shall give twenty per centum credit preference ratings to bona fide Pennsylvanians not born in this State but who have resided in Pennsylvania five years or more and who have served in said wars.

RESOLUTION NO. 6

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Resolution No. 6, Printer's No. 6.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, January 16, 1933.

Whereas, The Act of Assembly approved the 19th day of August, 1932, and known as the Second Talbot Act, provided for direct relief in the total sum of twelve million dollars, and

Whereas, The amount provided for direct relief is available for expenditure through the State Emergency Relief Board under such rules and regulations as the board shall adopt, and

Whereas, In certain instances, namely in the City of York, the State Emergency Relief Board is distributing said direct relief by the institution of a commissary, and

Whereas, Such distribution of food and relief through a commissary is un-American and un-democratic, degrading to the unfortunate recipient, psychologically incorrect and occasions the congregation of unfortunates with the possibility of serious social disorder, now therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That it is the intent and desire of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania that the distribution of food and relief through a commissary established by the State Emergency Relief Board shall be discontinued.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, this resolution has just been favorably reported by the Committee to Study Unemployment Relief, and the sub-committee.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

MEMBERS OF MOORISH-AMERICAN SOCIETY PERMITTED TO USE NAME AFFIXES

Mr. WITKIN offered the following resolution which was twice read and laid over under the rules:

In the House of Representatives, April 17, 1933.

Many sons and daughters of that proud and handsome race which inspired the architecture of Northern Africa and carried into Spain the influence of its artistic temperament have become citizens of this Nation.

In the City of Philadelphia, there exists a Moorish-American Society made up of Moors who have found here the end of their quest for a home, and of the children of those who journeyed here from the plains of Morocco.

This Society has done much to bring about a thorough absorption by these people of those principles which are necessary to make them good American citizens.

These Moorish-Americans have, since being here, missed the use of the titles and name annexations that were so familiar at home and which are used in accordance with the doctrines of the religious faith to which they are adherents; therefore be it

Resolved, That this House commends the Moorish-American Society of Philadelphia for the efficient service it has rendered the Nation in bringing about a speedy and thorough Americanization of these former Moors, and that in accordance with the fullest right of religious independence guaranteed every citizen, we recognize also the right of these people to use the name affixes—El, or Ali, or Bey, or any other prefix or suffix to which they have heretofore been accustomed to use or which they may hereafter acquire the right to use.

RESOLUTION No. 69

Mr. PETERS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Resolution No. 69, Printer's No. 856.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 10, 1933.

Resolved (if the Senate concur) That the joint legislative committee constituted by Concurrent Resolution Serial Number three adopted in the House of Representatives January third one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three and in the Senate January sixteenth one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three be and the same is hereby continued after the adjournment of the General Assembly of one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three

Resolved That it shall be the duty of said committee to continue to investigate and study the desirability of continuing the low-cost-type highway construction the cost of the construction and maintenance of such highways and whether such highways justify the expenditures made also whether the amounts expended from the Motor License Fund on low-cost-type highways should be limited or discontinued by the Legislature and such other matters and facts in connection therewith as may be information to the General Assembly in order to act intelligently on legislation relating to the highway program of the Commonwealth

The committee shall have power to hold such hearings as may be necessary It shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman requiring and commanding any person to appear before it and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee and to produce such books papers records and documents as the committee may deem necessary Such subpoenas may be served upon any person by any member of the committee or by any sergeant-at-arms of the Senate or House of Representatives and shall have the same force and effect as subpoenas issued out of the courts of the Commonwealth Each member of the committee shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before it Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to appear or testify before said committee or to produce any books papers records or documents shall be subject to the penalties approved by the laws of this Commonwealth in such cases

Resolved That the committee shall make a report to the session of the General Assembly of one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five with such drafts of legislation as it may deem proper to carry into effect its recommendations

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for its concurrence.

DISCHARGING COMMITTEE FROM FURTHER CONSIDERATION OF HOUSE BILL No. 700

Mr. GALLAGHER offered a resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 17, 1933.

Resolved, That the Committee on Railroads and Railways be discharged from further consideration of House Bill No. 700 better known as the "Full Crew Bill" for the following reasons:

1. This bill was introduced on February 6th and referred to this Committee on February 7th.

2. In accordance with the House rule this bill has been in said Committee since that time and the only action taken was to refer the same to a sub-committee.

3. This sub-committee has had this bill in its possession since that time and have failed to take any action whatsoever.

4. This bill is an act known as the full crew bill to promote the safety of employes and travelers upon railroads by compelling common carriers by railroad to man locomotives, trains and other self propelled engines or machines with competent employes; to provide the least number of men that may be employed on locomotives, trains, and other self propelled engines or machines, to provide the qualification of certain employes and provide a penalty for the violation thereof.

5. This bill has been in said committee more than ten days.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. MYERS. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, on March 21st, at a meeting of the Committee on Railroads and Railways, House Bill No. 700 was called and considered, and by a majority vote of the members present the bill was referred to a sub-committee for the purpose of study.

Since that bill has been in the hands of the sub-committee, I have contacted the chairman of that sub-committee, and he informs me that he still is compiling data in order that he may make a concise and comprehensive report.

Therefore, I ask you to vote no on this resolution.

Mr. BETCHEL. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I reluctantly join in this discussion. It happens that I am the sponsor of the bill in question. The bill was introduced and referred to a committee on February 7th. After the bill was referred to a sub-committee, I took the matter up with a member of that sub-committee, but was unable to get any definite action.

If the bill has been held in committee from February 7th and then later referred to a sub-committee by action of the main committee, I feel that that sub-committee has had sufficient time in which to gather all the data necessary to have a comprehensive knowledge of that bill and to have it reported back to the main committee for final action thereon.

Therefore, I would ask the members of the House to vote to discharge this committee.

Mr. GALLAGHER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, if for no other reason this bill should be passed here it should be passed for the safety of the traveling public and the railroad employes.

I urge the members of this House to vote favorable on the discharge of this Committee.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Hermansen and Mr. Howard and were as follows:

The motion was agreed to.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION (SPECIAL ORDER)

The SPEAKER. The hour of 10.00 o'clock having arrived the Chair lays before the House the special order of business fixed for this time, being Concurrent Resolution of the Senate, known as the Howell Resolution.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the Senate, February 21, 1933.

Whereas, The continuance of the economic depression has seriously affected the revenues of all forms of Government and necessitates the greatest economy and reduction in governmental costs possible in order that budgets may be balanced, and our unemployed cared for; and

Whereas, The salaries paid to public officers and employes constitute an appreciable part of the cost of government; and

Whereas, Industry and business has been forced to reduce salaries and wages in order to continue operation and provide employment; therefore be it

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur), That it is the sense of the General Assembly that the salaries, compensation and emoluments of office of all public officers and employes of the executive, legislative and judicial departments of the State Government, should be reduced, and that those agencies and officers of government charged with the fixing of salaries and compensation of public employes should reduce such salaries and compensation in accordance with the provisions of this resolution;

Resolved, That all public officers of the executive, legislative and judicial departments of the State Government be urged to agree voluntarily to accept reductions in their salaries, compensation and emoluments of office and return the same to the government or permit it to retain, the percentage of such salaries, compensation and emoluments of office as is provided for by this resolution;

Resolved, That it is the sense of the General Assembly that such reductions in salaries, compensation and emoluments of office should be in accordance with the following standards:

(a) Salaries, compensation and emoluments amounting to $750 and less per annum should not be reduced.

(b) All salaries, comepnsation and emoluments amounting to more than $750 per annum should be reduced by an amount equal to 20% of the difference in amount between the present salary, compensation or emolument and the sum of $750.

(c) In the case of per diem compensation, such compensation amounting to $2 per day and less should not be reduced; and such compensation amounting to more than $2 per day should be reduced by an amount equal to 20% of the difference in amount between the present per diem compensation and the sum of $2.

(d) The amount of the compensation of the Members of the General Assembly not already paid over be reduced by 40%: Provided, That no such reduction shall be made as to any Member unless he shall agree thereto in writing sent to the Chief Clerk of the House.

Resolved, That it is the sense of the General Assembly that such reductions should become effective as of the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three, with the exception of those effecting the compensation of the members, officers and employes of the General Assembly which should apply to all such compensation, that has not heretofore been paid.

Resolved, That in order that the General Assembly, may ascertain the amount of money which can be saved by the foregoing reductions the Auditor General be directed to forward a copy of this resolution upon its final passage to the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, State Treasurer and Secretary of Internal Affairs, to each member of the Executive Board of the State Government, to the heads of the several departments and of the several administrative boards and commissions, to each of the judges learned in the law of the Commonwealth, and to the officers and members of the General Assembly, with the request that all persons affected thereby notify the Auditor General, in writing, within two weeks of such request of the acceptance of the provisions hereof and that requisitions of salary for such persons be drawn at the reduced rates, after the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three, in the case of members of the executive and judicial branches of the government.

Resolved, That this resolution is intended to be effective upon final passage.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, I offer the following amendments to this resolution.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend clause (d) to read as follows: "(d) The amount of the compensation of the members of the General Assembly not already paid over be reduced by 40%: Provided, That no such reduction shall be made as to any member unless he shall agree thereto in writing sent to the Chief Clerk of the House."

Amend the next to the last resolution, by striking out at the end thereof, the following: "and forthwith in the case of members and attaches of the General Assembly."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

The resolution was laid over under the rules.

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section three of the act approved the twenty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws one hundred forty-nine) entitled "An act imposing a State tax payable by those herein defined as distributors on liquid fuels used or sold and delivered within the Commonwealth which are ordinarily practically and commercially usable in internal combustion engines for the generation of power providing for the collection and lien of the tax and the distribution and use of the proceeds thereof requiring such distributors to secure permits to file corporate surety bonds and reports and to retain certain records imposing duties on retail dealers common carriers county commissioners and such distributors providing for rewards imposing certain costs on counties conferring powers and imposing duties on certain State officers and departments providing for refunds imposing penalties and making an appropriation" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 3 Liquid Fuels Permit [and] Bond or Deposit of Securities (a) On and after the effective date of this act it shall be unlawful for any distributor to continue to engage in or thereafter to begin to engage in the use or sale and delivery of liquid fuels within this Commonwealth unless a liquid fuels permit or permits shall have been issued to him as hereinafter prescribed

Penalty Each day in which any distributor shall engage in the use or sale and delivery of liquid fuels within this Commonwealth without a liquid fuels permit or permits as required by this act shall constitute a separate offense and for each such offense such distributor shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall upon conviction thereof be sentenced to pay a fine of two thousand dollars ($2,000) and costs of prosecution or undergo imprisonment for not more than two years or both in the discretion of the court

(b) Every person desiring to operate as a distributor shall file an application for a liquid fuels permit or permits with the department The application for a liquid fuels permit or permits shall be made upon a form prescribed prepared and furnished by the department and shall set forth the name under which the applicant transacts or intends to transact business the location of his place of business within this Commonwealth and such other information as the department may require If the applicant has or intends to have more than one place of business within the Commonwealth the application shall state the location of each place of business If the applicant is an association the application shall set forth the names and addresses of the persons constituting the association and if a corporation the names and addresses of the principal officers thereof and any other information prescribed by the department for purposes of identification The application shall be signed and verified by oath or affirmation by the owner if a natural person in the case of an association by a member or partner thereof and in the case of a corporation by an executive officer thereof or some person specifically authorized by the corporation to sign the application to which shall be attached written evidence of his authority

Upon approval of the application and the bond hereinafter required the department shall grant and issue to each distributor a liquid fuels permit for each place of business within the Commonwealth set forth in his application Liquid fuels permits shall not be assignable and shall be valid only for the distributors in whose names issued and for the transaction of business at the places designated therein and shall at all times be conspicuously displayed at the places for which issued All permits shall expire on the thirty-first day of May next succeeding the date upon which they are issued unless sooner suspended surrendered or revoked for cause by the scretary

(c) A liquid fuels permit shall not be granted and issued until the person applying therefor has filed with the department a surety bond payable to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in such amount as shall be fixed by the department except that the amount shall never be less than two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) Every such bond shall have as surety a duly authorized surety company to be approved by the department conditioned that the distributor will faithfully comply with the provisions of this act during the effective period of his permit The department may require any distributor to furnish such additional acceptable corporate surety bond as shall be necessary to secure at all times the payment by him to the Commonwealth of all taxes penalties and interest due under the provisions of this act If any distributor shall fail to file such additional bond within ten days after written notice from the department the department may forthwith suspend or revoke the permit or permits issued to him and collect all taxes penalties and interest due by him For the purpose of determining whether an existing bond or bonds are sufficient the department may at any time by written notice require any distributor to furnish a financial statement in such form as it may prescribe Upon failure of any distributor to furnish a financial statement within thirty (30) days of such written notice the department may forthwith suspend or revoke the permit or permits issued to him and shall collect all taxes penalties and interest due by him

Any surety on a bond furnished by a distributor as provided herein shall be released and discharged from any and all liability to the Commonwealth accruing on such bond after the expiration of sixty (60) days from the date upon which surety shall have lodged with the department a written request to be released and discharged but this provision shall not operate to relieve release or discharge the surety from any liability already accrued on which shall accrue before the expiration of the sixty (60) day period The department shall promptly upon receiving any such request notify the distributor who furnished the bond and unless the distributor shall on or before the expiration of the sixty (60) day period file with the department a new bond with corporate surety approved by and acceptable to the department the department shall forthwith cancel the distributor's permit or permits Whenever a new bond shall be furnished by a distributor as aforesaid the department shall cancel and surrender the old bond of the distributor as soon as it and the Department of Justice shall be satisfied that all liability under the old bond has been fully discharged

(d) Permits issued under the provisions of this act may be renewed annually before the first day of June upon an application as aforesaid being made to the department but no permit shall be renewed until the applicant shall file with the department a new surety bond in such amount as shall be fixed by the department and conditioned that the distributor will faithfully comply with the provisions of this act

(e) Nothing contained in this act shall require the filing of any application or bond or the possession and display of a liquid fuels permit for the use or sale and delivery of liquid fuels in interstate or foreign commerce not within the taxing power of the Commonwealth or for the use of liquid fuels by the United States government

(f) Any person required by the provisions of this section to file a surety bond may in lieu thereof deposit with the State Treasurer bonds of the United States or of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania the par value thereof to be of the amount of the surety bond required of such person The Treasurer shall issue to such person a certificate of such deposit which he shall file with the Department of Revenue Such securities deposited with the State Treasurer shall be held as a guarantee that the holder of the permit shall faithfully comply with the provisions of this act during the effective period of his permit The said securities shall be retained by the State Treasurer for a period of sixty (60) days after the termination of the permit of such person whether by his own act or by action of the department and such securities shall not be released from any liability to the Commonwealth already accrued or which shall accrue before the expiration of the sixty day period At the end of such sixty day period the said securities shall be returned to their owner only if all claims of the Commonwealth guaranteed by such deposit have been fully satisfied

Penalty Any person assigning or attempting to assign a liquid fuels permit or who shall fail to display conspicuously his permit at the place for which it is issued shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) and costs of prosecution and in default of payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than ten days
